Introduction

The remarkable ministry of William Branham was the response of the Holy Spirit to the prophecies of the Scriptures in Malachi 4:5,6, Luke 17:30, and Revelations 10:7. This worldwide ministry has been the culmination of many other Bible prophecies, and a continuation of the working of God by His Spirit at this End time. This ministry was spoken of in the Scriptures, to prepare the people for the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

We pray that the printed Word will become written in your heart as you prayerfully read this message.

While every effort has been made to provide an accurate unabridged transcription, the English audio files are the best representation of the sermons spoken by Bro Branham.

Audio and transcribed versions of over 1,100 sermons preached by William Branham are available for free downloading and printing in many languages at:

yourself. What you do is not accepted. It's what He done. Your own righteousness won't be accepted. If you quit smoking just because you said, "Well, I better quit smoking because I profess Christianity." God don't accept it. If you quit lusting after women just because that you're making yourself do it, God don't accept it. That's something you do; that's works. It's grace that saves you. Has God come to you and taken the whole thing out of you? That's the next thing.

<sup>262</sup> You say, "I joined church, and so I had to quit these things." God didn't accept that, nothing you can offer, He only accepts what Christ gives. He gives you eternal life, and takes it from you. Will you receive it?

... out on the stormy wild sea,
Come, anchor your soul in the haven of rest,
And say, "My beloved is mine."
I've anchored my soul...

(All right, you that raised your hand. The message is over now. Let's just worship now)

I'll sail the wild seas no more;
The tempest may sweep o'er the wild stormy deep,
In Jesus I'm safe evermore.

<sup>263</sup> Everyone now, in worship:

I've anchored my soul in the haven of rest, (Sabbath)
I'll sail the wild sea no more;
The tempest may sweep o'er the wild stormy deep,
In Jesus I'm safe evermore.

Shine on me...

(Just let yourself loose, close your eyes. Feel that sweet Spirit? That's worship. The message is over; this is worship.)

Let the light from the lighthouse shine on me,
O shine on me,
O Lord, shine on me,
O let the light from the lighthouse shine on me.

<sup>264</sup> How many feels real good? Raise your hand. That sweet humble spirit, that's it.

To be like Jesus,
Just to be like Jesus,
On earth I long to be like Him;
All through life's journey
From earth to glory,
I only ask to be like Him.

Just worship!

Hebrews, Chapter Four

<sup>1</sup> ... is to know more about our blessed Lord. And that's our purpose of gathering here, is for that purpose, and to pray for God's sick children. And this morning we had a wonderful blessing from the Scriptures.

<sup>2</sup> We are trying to take, each time of the service, a part of... I'm teaching in the book of Hebrews, have been for the last couple weeks now. And now, if the Lord willing, we will continue on Wednesday night, then on Sunday morning and Sunday night, on for as long as I'm to be here in this time. Not a revival, but it's revival... a meeting on our regular nights. And so we're very, very happy to have this time to meet with our good friends around about in the cities, around about in the Falls Cities here. And if we'd happen to have a cancellation or something, it might be that the Lord might lead us pretty soon to... Maybe we could have a few nights, maybe, in the gym or something, after while-if the Lord seems to lead that way, to a place where we could get our people together. And we seen people as was coming up, going back saying, "It was not room to come in." Course the Tabernacle's awful little. It just seats a very, very few people, and we're just so glad that you're willing to come out and sit in the heat to hear the Word of the Lord. And we're praying that God will exceedingly, abundantly bless you and to help you.

<sup>3</sup> And now, tonight, we're beginning on the 4th chap... How many was here this morning? Let's see your hands. Oh, that's wonderful, practically all of you. And we are beginning on the fourth chapter of the book of Hebrews. And, oh, what a marvelous book. Are you enjoying it? And it's comparing scripture by scripture.

HEB13:8

<sup>4</sup> And Paul, before he would ever witness to his experience, he first had to go down to Arabia and find out by the Word if it was the truth. I like that. And this morning's lesson... We found out in the teaching this morning that Christ was the same yesterday, today, and forever. And Paul found that the same pillar of fire that led the children of Israel, had met him on the road to Damascus. We found out that the pillar of fire that led the children of Israel out of the wilderness to the promised land, met Paul on the road to Damascus and called Hisself, "Jesus."

HEB1:1,2

<sup>5</sup> Then we find out the real supreme deity of Jesus Christ. The whole Book here is just a revelation of Jesus Christ, and He come... We find that "in sundry times and in divers manners, God spoke to the fathers through the prophets; in this last days through His Son, Christ Jesus." He has revealed Himself. And the Book from Genesis to Revelation is nothing but one constant, perpetual revelation of the Lord Jesus.

JOHN16:28

<sup>6</sup> And we find out that He was the One that was in the burning bush. We find out that He was the One that was with God before the foundation of the world. And we find out that, in the New Testament, He was God and man together. And then when He left the New Testament to go into heaven, He said, "I came from God, and I return to God."

<sup>7</sup> And then when Paul met Him, He was in the same form that He was when He led Israel (a pillar of fire). And Paul looked Him right into the face, being unconverted, and it caused him to have eye trouble the rest of his days. He went blind, and for several days He could not see nothing at all. He had to be led to a street called Straight.

ACTS9:12,17

<sup>8</sup> And God had a prophet down there that He spoke to, by the name of Ananias, who came in (by a vision) and laid his hands on Paul, and said, "Brother Saul, receive thy sight."

ACTS12:7

<sup>9</sup> And we find out then that that same Holy Spirit, that same Lord Jesus, came to Peter in a form of a light and delivered him out of the prison.

<sup>10</sup> And we find that that same Lord Jesus, in these days, is still in that pillar of fire (light) that's leading His people (His church), performing the same thing, giving visions, come in and lay hands on the people by a vision. The Lord Jesus, who met last Sunday morning at the house, and said, "There was a man coming, black-headed, graying. He was a Greek. His wife was middle-aged, and would be weeping at the altar."

<sup>11</sup> Some of them had told it, and knowed it was happening. He was both crippled-the balance nerve in his head was gone; he couldn't even have control of his feet or his limbs-and he was blind. And to make it double proof: I had a little lady to come pray for the sick first, then turned back around and had Brother Toms to come pray, and we sitting here watching it develop. And then I went down and prayed for the sick, and walked back. And she come, just exactly according to the vision, and caught me by the arm and begin to weeping, and said Dr. Ackerman had sent them here. Dr. Ackerman is a bosom friend of mine, Catholic. His boy is a priest at the monastery at Saint Meinrad, down in Indiana. And this man was from Jasper. And the Lord healed him out of that chair; he got up and walked. He could see as good as anybody else, and walked out of the building, normal and whole. All by a vision!

ACTS9:17

<sup>12</sup> "Brother Saul, the Lord Jesus that appeared to you in the way, has sent me that I might lay my hands on you, that you might receive your sight and be filled with the Holy Ghost." Wonderful.

<sup>13</sup> Then we find out, seeing that we have this great salvation, we should not... we could not escape the penalties and wrath of God if we neglect such a great salvation.

<sup>14</sup> Now, we're going to start reading tonight and begin the fourth chapter of the book of Hebrews. If anybody wants to follow along, we got some Bibles here. If they wanted one, why, one of the ushers will bring it to you if you hold up your hand-these Bibles. If one of the brethren here will take... There's two Bibles laying there, I believe.

<sup>15</sup> And now we will hurry, because we have communion after a bit. And where we get done tonight, Wednesday night we begin again. Now, I believe, this morning in our reading, we began on the 15th verse.

By faith now, they are trying to accept Him into their heart. They're trying to find grace with You, Lord.

MATT5:48

<sup>254</sup> Oh, they may have spoke in tongues, they might have shouted. They still got the same old temper. They still got the same old malice. They still tattle and talk, and do things they shouldn't do. They don't want that, Lord. What then, when that great book is opened? But, said, "Such won't enter the kingdom. Be ye therefore perfect, even as your Father in heaven is perfect." Anything short will not go in. Are they wholly trusting, tonight, in the crucified? If not, Lord, may they make that one eternal "Yes," just now.

<sup>255</sup> Say, "Lord, I... no emotion, but I just feel something down in my heart that something's telling me I can do it right now, by Your grace, and I'm now accepting You as my personal Saviour. I'm rejecting all the things of the world, and I want to enter your rest, and I believe I'm doing it right now. I believe the Holy Spirit is bringing me right into that place."

<sup>256</sup> While every head's bowed. Does anybody feel that way just now? Raise your hand, "The Holy Spirit is now bringing me into a place where I won't tattle any more." God bless you. "I won't do the things... My temper's gone. I can live in peace and joy and long-suffering, from right now. I believe God's a-speaking to me right now, that I can do it from this hour on, by His grace." Would you raise your hands? God bless you. God bless the young lady. Someone else? "I now believe."

PSA95:8,9 GAL4:10,11 HEB3:8,9,15,16 HEB10:1

<sup>257</sup> Don't tempt Him as in the day of provocation. Don't think because we go to church on Sunday or keep the sabbath... Paul said, "You that keep days or moons, or so forth, I'm afraid of you." The law having a shadow of good things to come and not the very image of the thing, can never make the worshipper perfect. But Christ makes you perfect, perfect in the sight of God. He takes away your sin, takes condemnation from you, gives you His love and joy.

<sup>258</sup> Would you enter into rest now? Someone else raise their hand, say, "I have did that." God bless you, young lady, over here to my left. God bless the man sitting to my right. Entering into His rest, think of it just now.

<sup>259</sup> Pray: "Just as I am, Lord, without one plea... I'm no good. Nothing I can offer You, but just my old, worn out, sinful life. Will You receive me? Cleanse? Relieve? Because I promised, I will believe. O Lamb of God, I come! I now come believing that now I've passed from death unto life, because right here in my seat I've accepted You as my Saviour and I feel peace in my heart."

<sup>260</sup> Five has raised up their hands. Would another one that feels that way? Raise your hand. If you're not a Christian, accept Him just now.

<sup>261</sup> If you profess to be a Christian and have not been that kind, you're still a sinner, no matter what life you've done or how you try to make

I truly believe.”

<sup>246</sup> Then what does He do? He gives you His life (Zoe), eternal life. And if God could raise us from the dust of the earth, where we come from... Did we come from the dust? Everything you see come from the dust. And if God could make me what I am today, without having any choice, just because His desire was to make me and give me the opportunity to face Calvary and make my decision (and I made my decision and believed on Him), how much more will He raise me up. If He made me what I am without a choice, then I took a choice and took Him in... when He laid His hands by Himself and swore by Himself that He'd raise me up in the last day.

<sup>247</sup> I will rest assure; I have rest. Not because I worship on Sunday, not because I worship on the sabbath-that has nothing to do with it. I worship because I've entered into His peace and rest (peace, rest, love, joy). Let the storm strive, my anchor holds.

<sup>248</sup> Have you got that experience, tonight, friend of mine that's sitting here in this hot tabernacle? You didn't come to hear me. No, you come to hear the Word. Listen, my friend.

<sup>249</sup> Now if you haven't got that rest, you can find it right now. You don't have to come up here at the altar; sit right where you are. Be sincere, and say, "Christ, just speak to my heart. I know it's hot. I'm just all lathery, sweaty. I'm awful. But, Lord, truly I may be sweating with pain, worse than this, before morning." And the doctor may shake his head, say, "It's a heart attack. He's gone." Then what?

<sup>250</sup> What then? When the great book is opened, what then? You heard that song: What Then? When the ones that's rejected the message, will be asked to give a reason, what then? What then? Think of it now, real deeply.

<sup>251</sup> While we bow our heads, think of it:

When the ones that's rejecting this message tonight,

Going to be asked to give a reason, What then?

What then? What then?

When the great book is opened, What then?

When the ones that's rejecting this message tonight,

You're going to be asked to give a reason, What then?

<sup>252</sup> Our Heavenly Father, this is all in Your hands now. Here is the true sabbath laying before the people. Here's the Angel of God, for the last few years has blasted around the world. Critics and everything else has tried to condemn it but, every time, You prove Yourself to be God.

<sup>253</sup> Scientific world, the church world... Are they blind, Lord? Maybe there's one in here tonight would like to receive their sight to walk on, and not tempt God as in the days of provocation; not try to tempt Him by be good on Sunday, or keep a certain day, or to a certain creed, or to belong to a certain church, but would like to come out and be circumcised by the heart and receive the Holy Spirit, and they want Him.

<sup>16</sup> Somebody, maybe not know me-putting on glasses to read by. I'm getting old. And I can still read, but I can't pick it fast, especially when I'm got fine reading here, fine print.

<sup>17</sup> And I went to have my eyes examined to see if I was really losing my sight. My eyes were 10/10. He said, "But you're past forty, son." He had a thing for me to read, said, "Start reading that." And I read it. And I kept getting closer, it got slower and slower. And it got about like this, I stopped. Then he put out there for 10/10, and I could read it anywhere. But he said, "What it is, when you past forty, your eyeballs get flat."

<sup>18</sup> Now, I can squint my eyes and read just that close to me, but you have to squint. So, he just made me a pair of glasses. I can see it anywhere, when it's real close to me. Now, when it gets off from me, can't see at all with these things. But I read from this with the glasses.

<sup>19</sup> Now, this morning, we had the last part of the third chapter of the Hebrews. And, oh, what rich kernels we find. Now, listen, I want to read it again so we can get a background, now, and not talk on it but just kind of go over it a little.

While it is said, To-day if ye... hear his voice, harden not your hearts as in the provocation.

For some... when they... heard the Word, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.

HEB3:15

<sup>20</sup> Now, in that, this morning, we find that He said, "Don't harden your heart now, as in the days of provocation." That's when they provoked God to anger because that He had give to them Moses, His prophet, and a sign that was with Moses. How many, of the class tonight, knows what that sign was? Pillar of fire, Hebrews 13.

EX14:15

<sup>21</sup> Now, we don't know whether the congregation saw that sign or not. But Moses saw it, for Moses first met Him in a burning bush. He was a fire. And the children of Israel obeyed Moses, and left Egypt. And as soon as they come out of Egypt, God, we found, led them right into a trap, where Pharaoh's army behind them, the Red Sea on either side; and God put them to test; and they got scared. And it provoked God; He said, "Why do you cry at Me?" Said, "Just speak and go forward." I like that.

<sup>22</sup> Now, they were following Moses, as Moses followed the Pillar and Cloud, and they were on their way to the promised land. Beautiful picture of the church, tonight, on our way to the promised land, led by the same Spirit, same signs and wonders as God spoke of.

<sup>23</sup> Now, notice, then they come to the wilderness of sin. The waters were bitter, Marah. Why did God lead them to bitter waters? Looks like He'd have led them to good water. But He led them to bitter waters so He could prove their faith. He likes to do it. He likes to let tribulations come on you so He can show you His love and His power. How can people, today, who doesn't believe in the miracle-working of God... ?

When tribulations come, they just give up and go on. But we believe that God works miracles. He can't... God has...

<sup>24</sup> Listen to this: if God doesn't act the same, when the same circumstances arise, then God's guilty of being partial to His people. God's sovereignty demands of Him to work in every case like He did the first case, or He was wrong when He worked in the first case. If God does not act in the same way He did on the first case-if He will act different to the second case-then He acted wrong when He acted on the first case. If God healed the sick in the Old Testament, He's got to do it in the New Testament and today, or He did wrong when He healed them back there. He's got to act the same every time, and He will do it when the same faith meets the condition. The fault's in us, not in God. For we see Him on some... And many work great outstanding miracles. We know it. The critic cannot say, "It's not so." For we see it prove it, and there it is.

<sup>25</sup> They used to say, "Show me a miracle!" They can't say that no more. Science can't say it no more. We can absolutely prove to the scientific world... And the scientific world has witnessed that a supernatural Being, in a form of a pillar of fire, is with us. Here's His picture, right here, and one hangs in Washington, D.C., tonight. It is the same Christ!

<sup>26</sup> There for a while, my ministering brethren used to tell me, "Oh, Brother Branham, that's the devil. Don't you fool with that." Had me scared.

<sup>27</sup> And I would not preach it until God came and revealed it, that "He's the same Jesus, the same One." Oh, then try to shake it out of me! Can't be done! For it's the Scripture. It's God's Word. It's not just an experience that's loose. It's an experience that's backed up by God's Word and God's eternal blessed promise.

HEB3:16

<sup>28</sup> Now, we notice over here, then, that He said:

For some, when they had heard, did provoke:...

Certainly! They got weary every time they'd get to a place where a showdown come. Then what would they do? They would fly loose and get weary and want to turn back, and, "Why did this happen to me?"

<sup>29</sup> Strange thing: This morning, after preaching that just as hard as I could, there was many came to the altar and questioned it, "Why does this happen to me?" You see how it goes? It goes over the top of the people's head. It's just the same people.

MARK8:18

<sup>30</sup> Jesus said, "You have eyes, but you can't see." He said that to the disciples.

JOHN16:29,30

<sup>31</sup> They said, "Lo, now Thou speakest plainly, now we believe. No man has to tell You anything, because God shows it to You."

JOHN16:31

<sup>32</sup> He said, "Do you now believe? After all this time?" See?

For in this last day, to the Gentile church, God has appeared again: same sign, same wonder, same pillar of fire, vindicated, proven. Let us not harden our hearts and fall in that temptation back yonder of unbelief, for we will rot on earth and that'll be all of it.

<sup>237</sup> And when the Holy Spirit knocks at your heart, "After so long a time when you hear My voice, harden not your heart;" say, "Child of mine, this is the truth." Don't look at the messenger; listen to the message. Believe it. "Harden not your heart as in the days of provocation."

HEB3:7,8,15 HEB4:7

<sup>238</sup> When you hear His voice, harden not your heart. Then you say, "Yes, Lord, I believe." Then you enter into life, the Holy Spirit comes into you. Your old spirit dies out, that makes you lust and hate, and malice and enmity and hatred and all them things dies away. And you become full of love, joy, peace. Resting! No matter how the winds blow, it's all right.

My anchor holds within the veil.
Through every high and stormy gale,
My anchor holds within the veil.
For on Christ, the solid rock, I stand;
All other grounds is sinking sand.

<sup>239</sup> There you are. Eddie Peronnett, as he wrote that famous song... All other grounds: all denominations, all creeds, all doctrines fade away. Christ! You say, "Well, I know the Bible." You don't have life by knowing the Bible. "I know my catechism." You don't have life by knowing your catechism. "Well, I'm a Christian." You don't have life by professing Christianity.

HEB4:10

<sup>240</sup> You have life by knowing Him. Knowing Him, you have life. Then you enter into His rest, you cease from your works as God did from His. You are made a Son of God, a partaker of God. And if that Holy Spirit woos to you, and you woo back and say, "Yes, Lord." Or coos...

MATT11:28

<sup>241</sup> Coo, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor and are heavy laden, I will give you rest."

<sup>242</sup> And you say, "Ah, I'm young. Oh, my pastor don't... All I got to do... " See? You'll never find it.

<sup>243</sup> But when you say, "Yes, my Lord, I hear Your voice. I don't harden my heart. I don't care, Lord, it's your Word and I believe You. Take me Jesus: Just as I am, without one plea, But that Thy blood was shed for me, And then I promise I will believe, O Lamb of God, I come!" Lay your hands upon His dying head, say, "Lord, I'm a sinner and You called to me."

JOHN6:37,39

<sup>244</sup> "All the Father has given Me will come to Me, and I will raise him up at the last day."

<sup>245</sup> "Yes, Lord, I come. I harden not my heart as they did in provocation.

own life comes down and dwells in the man, and he's eternal with God and can't die. That's what the Word said.

<sup>229</sup> Just think of it. Is there two eternal lives? You couldn't answer that, could you? There's one eternal life, and that's the life of God. This other kind of life, no matter what it is, it's got an end to it. And anything that had a beginning has an end. But anything that had no beginning has no end. And God said He would give us eternal life without beginning. We were just made a part of Him. And actually the life that's in us, wasn't brought here by human nature. Nature give us a spirit, but that spirit died and we got the Spirit of God. Glory to God.

GEN1:26 GEN2:5,7

<sup>230</sup> Was God a man? Certainly! "Let us make man in our own image." What was God? A theophany, a body! And there, man was made like that and put over the garden, but there was no man to till the soil, in the senses. Then He created man out of the dust of earth in the animal life, and that man tilled the soil. And the man fell by transgression. Correctly. And God, the theophany, come down and was made flesh and dwelt among us to redeem the man.

PSA51:5 PSA58:3

<sup>231</sup> So it's nothing you could do. You're a sinner to start with. You're shaped in iniquity. You're borned in sin, come to the world speaking lies. You were borned here in this world by a sexual desire of your father and mother, and you're just as hell-bound as you can be, I don't care what you do. You might never lie, steal, keep every commandment and everything else, and you'll go to hell like a martin to its box. But the only way that you ever can live again, is to accept the Holy Spirit, God's eternal life.

<sup>232</sup> What made you what you are? In the beginning when the Holy Ghost brood over the earth, there wasn't nothing but volcanic eruption, a little Easter flower come up. God said, "That looks pretty, just keep brooding." Flowers come up. Grass come up. Trees come up. Birds flew out of the dust. Animals come up. A man come up.

<sup>233</sup> Now, how was it done? By the brooding of the Holy Spirit, bringing these materials together: potash, calcium, making the flowers, making animal, making you.

HEB3:15

<sup>234</sup> And now, you got a free choice, God broods back to you and say, "Hear My voice? Harden not your heart like in the days of provocation." Here He comes down, preaches the Word. The Gospel preached unto them didn't have faith in it, so it didn't do them no good. They heard it, but they didn't believe it.

<sup>235</sup> God come down and He showed them a pillar of fire; showed by His prophets, signs and wonders, He was with him. They didn't believe it. Oh, they liked to see the miracles. They liked to hear the prophet. But as far as believing it, they didn't. Their lives proves they didn't.

HEB4:11

<sup>236</sup> Now, He said, "Don't you fall after that same example of unbelief!"

PSA37:23 HEB12:6 1PET1:7

<sup>33</sup> You mustn't question anything to God, "For the footsteps of the righteous is ordered of the Lord." And every trial is put upon you to prove you. And the Bible said, "They're more precious to you than gold." So if God let a few light afflictions happen to you, remember, it's for the correction of you. "Every son that cometh to God must first be chastened of God and tried," child-trained! There's no exceptions, "Every son that cometh!" And these afflictions are done or brought about to see what attitude you'll take. See, it's God, on this proving grounds. That's all earth is, is a proving grounds, and where He's trying to prove you.

HEB3:18,19

<sup>34</sup> Now listen, as we go ahead, and I want to get the last part of it:

And to whom he sware that they should not enter into his rest

[Now there's where we're coming to, tonight],

...into his rest, but to them that believed not?

So we see that they could not enter... because of unbelief.

<sup>35</sup> Now, what is sin? Unbelief! God had come to them in a pillar of fire; sent His prophet and anointed him, give him signs to do before the people; and then the pillar of fire, by the prophet, led them out. Every circumstance they come to, they begin to murmur and say every little fault they found with Moses, begin to chide and chatter against Him. And God was displeased, because He said they were sinning.

ROM8:28

<sup>36</sup> They should have listened. But instead of that, they listened to reason: "How can it be? How can these things be?" If he's God, everything is possible! And He will make all things work together for good to them that love Him.

<sup>37</sup> Now we're going into a great study here, that is, on the "rest," the sabbath. Now, they were pilgrims in their journey. See, they'd been down in Egypt four hundred years and in bondage. And now they were being brought out by the miracles of God, according to His promise. And they were on the road to the promised land. And here a supernatural light appears in amongst of them, and begins to lead them.

Now, some of them would say:

"Now, looky here, who is this Moses?"

"Who made you a ruler over us?"

"Aren't you one of us?"

"Who put you down here to be our boss?"

"You think you know more than our pastor does?"

"You think you know more than the priest does?"

"You think you're smarter than what our religious men are of this day?"

<sup>38</sup> That had nothing to do with it. It was God in the pillar of fire avindicating that He was in the move. Didn't make any difference who was smart and who wasn't smart. It was the idea of following what God put before them.

<sup>39</sup> Why, Moses, as far as physical, done a foolish thing when he tried to deliver the children by the Word of God; taking a bunch of people out in the wilderness, when he had his... Why, he was the heir to everything they had. He had every army there was, in all the world, whipped, and there he was, a great military general. And the next move, he was to be king, Pharaoh of Egypt. Why, he could of just stepped up to the throne and said, "All right, children, go on back to your home." That settles it; he was a Pharaoh.

<sup>40</sup> But Moses... Oh, here it is! Moses, by faith, saw the promise of God. And the Angel of the Lord come to him, and he knowed more about God in five minutes, in the presence of that Angel, than he learned in forty years with the teachers of Egypt; he knowed that He was. He seen the supernatural done.

<sup>41</sup> He said, "I will be with you, Moses. I will go before you." And they understood. And He give him signs to perform.

<sup>42</sup> Now, they were on their road to the land of rest. God had them a rest, a place where they wouldn't have to be taskmasters over them to drive them, to make them do things.

1JHN2:15

<sup>43</sup> What a beautiful picture it is today, when we look at the church and see the church in its condition, every man that's borned of the Spirit of God despises the world. "And if you love the world or the things of the world, the love of God's not even in you." That's what the Bible said. And the real pilgrim, on his road, simply hates the things of the world. He hates to see men drinking. He hates to see men smoking. He hates to see women on the street with them little ol' dirty clothes on. He hates to see buncos and card parties.

<sup>44</sup> And yesterday, while Brother Tony... or Brother Wood and I were coming through the street, and some of the men... There was a little lady there in Louisville, coming down the street, lovely looking little woman, with clothes on that was horrible: just a little way up on the hip, and a little ribbon tied on her hips on each side, and a little bitty round piece of cloth in front of her and tied with a string behind; walking down the street, horribly. And every man on the street looking at her. I said, "She doesn't realize that she's guilty, in the sight of God, with committing adultery with every man that looked on her in that manner. And she will answer at the day of judgment for committing adultery with those men."

MATT5:28

<sup>45</sup> Jesus said, "Whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her, has committed adultery with her already." That's right.

<sup>46</sup> So, you see, Brother Wood said to me, "What do you allow for that, Brother Branham?"

<sup>47</sup> I said, "It's either mental deficiency or devil possession." There's got love, peace, joy, long-suffering, goodness, gentleness, patience. We have a High Priest sitting in heaven, ready to make intercessions upon our profession. What is it? It's when Jesus went back to the Logos, the pillar of fire that led the children of Israel, sitting in the presence of them greats fountain; rainbow of light that come out, the seven perfect spirits, a perfect spirit of love.

<sup>223</sup> Now, watch. The first is a perfect love-that's God's love, pure and unadulterated. The next, comes in there, is phileo love; that's love that you have for your wife and your children. The next, drops after that, is lustful love. The next is ungodly love. And it just goes on down till it's filth, just keep on perverting, perverting.

<sup>224</sup> And everything that had a beginning has an end, and all that will be taken right away and no remembrance of it at all, and come right back to the perfect, someday. And the only way... You can't stop down here halfway of the way, and get up here. You've got to be all the way in, trusting, resting completely in the salvation that Jesus Christ give to you by faith.

<sup>225</sup> There's a spirit of honesty that comes from God; that's the fountain. Fountain of God, that's honesty. The next is a man who'll do a good deed for his neighbor. The next is the guy, you have to watch him. The next is a guy is a thief. The next is a guy is a murderer, hold up. See how it perverts right on down? But all them things speak of a real.

2COR5:1

<sup>226</sup> That's what I say, every time you see a person that's... You see a little couple walking down the street, sweethearts, maybe they're eighty years old. It only speaks that in heaven there's a young couple that represent them, in heaven. If this earthly tabernacle dissolve, we have one there.

JONA2:6

<sup>227</sup> If you see a man that's cheating, stealing, lying, just remember, his part's waiting in hell for him-his place where he will be tormented in the presence of God and the holy angels, with fire and brimstone. He will be tormented there. Not forever; he can't be tormented forever; forever don't mean all time. Eternity's forever. Eternity has no beginning or end, but forever is a space of time. The Bible said "forever and [conjunction] forever." Jonah said he was in the belly of the whale forever. It's a space of time.

JOHN5:24

<sup>228</sup> But, look, there's only one eternal life, and that's God. And if you're going to be tormented forever and can never die, you got eternal life. You can't be tormented forever. You may be tormented for a hundred million years in the presence of God and the holy angels, with fire and brimstone-I don't know how long He says it is -but it's finally got to come to an end because it had a beginning, and God alone has eternal life. "He that heareth My words, and believeth on Him that sent Me, (doesn't have forever life) he has eternal life." That life that begin... not nothing along here, but all the way up there, eternal life (Zoe). God's

[Listen now, to the sick.]

... that has passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our confession.

<sup>216</sup> “Hold fast”; that don’t mean just keep testifying. If you don’t live the life, you don’t hold it fast. You’re living a hypocritical thing. You better be on out and just say you’re a sinner and forget about it. Don’t profess a Christian and live something else; you’re the biggest stumbling block the world’s ever had. If you’re a sinner, admit it and go on, get right with God. If you’re a Christian, hold fast your confession, stay there.

<sup>217</sup> And watch this now, I want to get this in just before we leave:

For we have not a high priest that cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted like... we are, yet without sin.

HEB4:16

<sup>218</sup> (Listen!)

Let us therefore come boldly to the throne of grace, that we might obtain mercy, and find grace and help in the time of need.

[Blessed be the name of God.]

GEN15:6 ROM4:3 GAL3:6 JAS2:23

<sup>219</sup> Listen Baptist, Presbyterian, Lutheran! You going to ask me this question: “Abraham believed God, and it was imputed unto him for righteousness.” I know that’s where you always go. That’s true, “What more can a man do but believe God?” That’s exactly right, that’s all he can do. But when God recognizes that faith, He gives you the Holy Ghost.

<sup>220</sup> “Now what do I do, Brother Branham? Do I shout?” Not necessary. “Do I speak with tongues?” Not necessary. You can shout and speak with tongues both, and still live like a heathen; you still lust for women, you can still smoke and drink and everything else. I’ve seen people speak with tongues and go right out and pull some of the dirtiest, crooked deal I ever seen; I seen them shout and cry crocodile tears and would steal anything you get ahold of. I seen them walk out, and every girl that goes down the street-turn. Uh-huh, that’s one good sign you haven’t got it. That’s right.

<sup>221</sup> But, brother, when you’ve passed from death unto life, all those things become dead, and you’re a new creature in Christ Jesus. If you see something wrong, you’ll pray for it: “God be merciful.” And if you see troubles, instead of going and tattling and trying to make it worse, you’ll try to get to the person and straighten it up and quieten it right quick. That’s the Spirit of God in you.

GAL5:22 EPH4:26

<sup>222</sup> If you make a mistake (you’re subject to them)... If you make a mistake, you’ll correct it right quick, “Don’t let the sun go down on your wrath.” That’s how you know you’ve passed from death unto life: you only two things to make it. A decent, clean woman won’t wear those things unless she’s devil possessed. That’s exactly the truth.

<sup>48</sup> Now, a pilgrim that’s on his road to heaven, he lives in a different atmosphere. You don’t have to worry about him looking at her. He will turn his head if he’s got God in his heart, for he’s living in an atmosphere that’s a million miles from those things. That’s right. You don’t want to be guilty of that stuff at the judgment. So he turns his head and says, “God, have mercy on the woman,” and on he goes. We’re in our journey. We’re on our way to Canaan’s land. We’re on our way to that eternal and blissful rest that God has given us. And in the journey, we’re are tempted. We’re tempted of all kinds of things, but yet be tempted without sinning.

<sup>49</sup> Now notice, as we go to the fourth chapter:

Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest,...

HEB3:15

<sup>50</sup> I want you to remember that unless we find out, unless God has revealed it to us... No matter how much we go to church, that has nothing to do with it. God must come by revelation and reveal Himself to us; that takes all the things of the world out. Now, “While it is said, ‘Today if you...’”

<sup>51</sup> Now let’s start the fourth chapter:

...Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us to enter into his rest,...

HEB4:1

<sup>52</sup> Now remember, when they were on the road to rest, the pillar of fire led them. Now we want to find out, “What is this rest?”

...Let us... fear, lest, the promise being left us to enter into his rest, [watch] any of you should seem to come short of it.

<sup>53</sup> Now, here’s the promise. Here’s what we got to fear: if there’s not a promise left us. But there is a promise! And then, the next thing: don’t come short of it.

<sup>54</sup> Now, the thought is: if we are on our way to the rest, what is the rest? Where is it? Is it joining church? Is it being baptized a certain way? Is it becoming a member of the greatest church in the city? Wearing better clothes? Is it education? Is it money, so we can quit work and just lay down and “rest the rest of our life” as we call it? That’s not it!

<sup>55</sup> Listen what the Bible says it is, and how we get it:

Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us to enter into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.

For unto us [the day then] the gospel was preached, as well as unto them:...

What is the Gospel? The good news! The good news came to them in Egypt, that “God has sent a deliverer, and is going to bring us out and take us to the promised land.”

<sup>56</sup> The good news to us now that “God has sent a deliverer, the Holy Ghost, and we’re on the road to the promised land.” Now people has made it creeds and denominations, but God still remains that our rest is the Holy Ghost!

<sup>57</sup> Notice:

... gospel was preached... unto them as well as unto us: but the word preached did not profit them, ... the [remember] the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

HEB4:2

<sup>58</sup> Oh, my brethren, let me stop here for a minute. No matter how much the Word is preached, how well you like the way it’s been preached, unless you yourself are a partaker of that, it won’t do you one bit of good.

... not being mixed with faith by them that heard it.

<sup>59</sup> They seen the miracles of Moses; they said, “That’s pretty good.” And they walked over and they seen him perform miracles, and they seen the pillar of fire maybe, or heard them talk about it, “Oh, that’s all right.”

<sup>60</sup> But it wasn’t mixed with personal faith. For as soon as they got to the wilderness, they (every one) begin to murmur. And God said, because that they doubted, “It was sin.” Don’t doubt nothing. Believe! Don’t doubt; no matter how hard the case is, believe it.

<sup>61</sup> Now they began to murmur, and God over-threwed them. And then He swore, in His wrath, that they should never enter into His rest. And the Bible said here, I believe it’s in the third chapter, that their carcasses fell in the wilderness.

HEB3:17

<sup>62</sup> The third chapter and the seventeenth verse:

But with whom he was grieved for forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?

MATT7:14

<sup>63</sup> And of all of them that come out of Egypt, only two went into the promised land. Out of the whole antediluvian world, in the days gone by, there were eight souls saved out of billions. “Strait is the gate and narrow is the way, but few there’ll be that will find it.”

<sup>64</sup> Some people says, then, “Brother Branham, what about all these thousands that the Bible said will appear there?” Just remember how many’s died in each generation, that’s been Christians, down through the age. They’ll all resurrect; that makes up the body. You expect there be a hundred billion in this America come out, or some other... this world, today. There might not be fifty come out. But the great ransomed church

There is... no condemnation to them that are in Christ Jesus, that walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.

<sup>209</sup> There you are. That’s how to judge your Christianity. That’s how to know you’ve entered into that rest: the world don’t bother you no more. Certainly! You see it, walk away from it. You got something better to think of. There you are. No condemnation! That’s how we get into the body. And you’re secured forever. The Bible said so.

<sup>210</sup> Look over here in the Hebrews, the tenth chapter, He said:

... for where there’s offerings of bulls and sacrifices, remembrance was made of sin every year. But this man,... through one sacrifice

[Blessed be His holy name.]

For by one sacrifice he hath perfected forever...

[Hallelujah! Not for the next revival, but forever.]

2COR5:17

<sup>211</sup> “Old things have passed away and all things have become new.” We’re walking in the light, the beautiful light. The birds sing different.

<sup>212</sup> Sitting here looking at this little alcoholic (about five years ago, I guess): Rosella, a wall-eyed bat, walking down the streets of Chicago, drunk, twisting around, walking into every kind of sin that there was, drunk and in every thing that she could be, and one night, the Holy Spirit that’s quicker, more powerful than a two-edged sword said, “Woman, you are an alcoholic.” Hallelujah! If that ain’t the same God that was back yonder, who knowed Sarah laughed behind Him, I don’t know what He is.

<sup>213</sup> Up in the audience to another little woman (She went and got and brought in there) said, “You are a dope addict.” How He discerns the thoughts of the mind!

2COR3:6 HEB4:12

<sup>214</sup> And great big aristocratic minister sitting there, who has world-wide evangelism, with their hands folded back, in T-shirts, thought we didn’t know them, like they could sit under a meeting like that and God wouldn’t reveal who they were. Sitting there looking different, like they were somebody else. The Holy Ghost knowed who they was. And they sat there, in their hearts, thought it was mental telepathy. Know no more about God than a Hottentot would know about Egyptian knight. That’s right. They know it by letter, but not by Spirit. The letter killeth, but the Spirit giveth life. That’s it, that’s the idea. “Quicker, more powerful than a two-edged sword, a discerner of the thoughts of the heart.”

Neither is there any creature that is not manifested in his sight: but all things are naked and open before His eye to him... who we have to do with.

Seeing then that we have a great high priest, is the last chance. Father, Son, and Holy Ghost-life come through there.

<sup>202</sup> Justification, Martin Luther, still a form of religion. Sanctification, Martin Luther... John Wesley. The baptism of the Holy Ghost, life. Justification is believing. Sanctification is the cleansing. Holy Ghost is the filling. Life! Not through the Lutheran age; they had it in a form. Not through the Wesley age; they had it in a form. But this is the age when the Holy Ghost comes Himself.

<sup>203</sup> And if you haven't received it, how do you... can you believe miracles? That takes God in you to believe. You act like God. You know like God. You think like God. The Bible said that you are amateur, little gods. Jesus said so! For you're a part of God. Just the same as I'm a little Branham, and you're a little... whoever you are, is because your parents is that name. The nature that you are is because your parents is that way, because you was borned of them. And the reason that you believe God and believe in miracles and signs and wonders, because you're sons and daughters of God; You receive life. Life comes on the third.

<sup>204</sup> All right. When Jesus went upon the mountain, everywhere He went, He would take Peter, James and John, three witnesses. Three's the number of life. Get it? Love, joy, peace.

HEB4:12,13

<sup>205</sup> Now, let's go quickly now to the end of the chapter, quickly as we read:

For the word of God is quicker... more powerful... than... two-edged sword,... and... discerning even the... intents of the heart.

Neither is there any creature that is not manifested in his sight: but all things are... opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.

HEB4:13

<sup>206</sup> Brother, there's not a fly could light on a post there without Him knowing it. All things are open. Brother, He knows every thing that you ever did, every thought you ever thought of. That's what He is. We believe Him like that. And when God comes into us and sets us in the church, He puts gifts and things in the church to operate His Being. If God is that infinite God, then He heals the sick, He can raise the dead, He can cleanse the lepers, make the blind to see, He can give visions, He can do all kinds of these things, working through His church because it's God in you. There's the church.

1COR12:13

<sup>207</sup> How does that church become a church? By joining it? No, sir! By shaking hands? No, sir! By water baptism? No, sir! By membership? No, sir! How do you get it? "For by one Spirit we are all baptized into one body." There you are.

<sup>208</sup> Romans 8:1:

There is therefore now no condemnation

[No worldly condemnation; they can't accuse you of nothing.]

is laying in the dust, awaiting. They're God's jewels that's resting in the dust, but their souls are under the Altar of God. They're not in their right state. They are in a body, truly, but a theophany, and they cry out to God, "How long?" They could see one another but they couldn't shake each other's hands-that kind of a body.

<sup>65</sup> You meet your mother in glory tonight, if you should go, you couldn't shake her hand because she has not that kind of a hand. You couldn't feel it like you'd feel now, because five senses is what's put in this body, could it control. The presence of her would be felt in a different atmosphere.

MATT22:30 MARK12:25 LUKE20:35

<sup>66</sup> That's like a husband and wife. There'll be no marrying or given in marrying in heaven. Why? Because there is a different kind of love; there's no sexual desire. All those things has passed away; you're cleansed and pure. But you never did live in that state, therefore you wasn't created for that state. You're just waiting there. But you're longing to come back where you was created a man and a woman and there God will raise that body out of the dust of the earth and glorify it. Then you'll see, taste, feel, smell and hear, and associate. We will never know. We could never enjoy an angel's life. We wasn't created angels. God created angels. But He created you and I, men and women. That's the state we will be in forever, at His blessed coming.

<sup>67</sup> Now, see how they fell short, because they sinned and come short of the glory. God showed them the pillar of fire. He showed them signs and wonders. He led them out. He brought them into temptations to try them and prove them.

JOB1:8

<sup>68</sup> Now, haven't you had a lot of temptations? Don't complain about them. Rejoice! God's with you. He's trying to prove your faith. Look at Job in the Old Testament, when He said, "Have you considered My servant Job? A just man, a perfect man, there is none like him on the earth."

JOB1:10,11

<sup>69</sup> "Oh," he said, "sure, You got him hedged up: doesn't have any troubles, doesn't have any worries. He doesn't have any financial burdens, everything's fine. He don't have any sickness, any pain. Let me have him! I will make him curse You to Your face."

JOB1:12 JOB2:6

<sup>70</sup> He said, "He's in your hand, but don't you take his life."

<sup>71</sup> Oh! He done everything but take his life, but he couldn't move Job. Job knowed he stood pat on the Word. That's right. And all the devils out of hell couldn't move him, for he knowed he had offered that sacrifice. He was just. And they accused him, said, "You've sinned, Job, and God's a-punishing you." He knew that God hadn't... that he hadn't sinned before God. He knew that he was righteous. Not because he was a good man, but because He was accepting the burnt-offering in his stead.

<sup>72</sup> And, tonight, we know that his life proved out that he was righteous.

And when you... Not trying to get home to glory because you try to help your neighbor (that's good), not because you join church (that's good), but you get home to glory because you accept the righteousness of Jesus Christ, nothing that you've done yourself.

<sup>73</sup> Now, as we read on:

For unto us was the gospel preached, [second verse] as well as unto them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.

[Faith wasn't in them that heard the Word.]

<sup>74</sup> Just think today, in the little humble ministry that the Lord has given me, there should be forty million Americans saved, tonight. You know what they say? "Why, it's mental telepathy. He's a mind reader. No such stuff! Why, he don't belong to our church." See, it's not... No matter how much you lay it on the Word and prove that it's God's Word, it's God's promise, how much science would prove that it's true, they'll still can't believe. The Bible said they couldn't.

<sup>75</sup> Then what's the use to preach it? God has to have a witness to condemn them at that day. The Word was preached and proved among them, and they still ignorantly walked away. There's nothing left but judgment. God could not justly judge a nation unless it had mercy before it had judgment. He's God, He couldn't do it.

<sup>76</sup> Now what do we say?

For we which... believed too have entered into rest, as he said, As I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works was finished from the foundation of the world.

For he spake in a certain place on the seventh day on this wise,...

<sup>77</sup> Now, I do not want to hurt people's feelings against their religion; that's not my purpose. Out in the fields, I just preach the regular great evangelical, fundamental doctrines. But in the Tabernacle, amongst my children here, I feel I have a right to preach what I think is doctrine and truth, see. I think that it's right.

<sup>78</sup> Now, I have thousands of good Sabbatarian friends, of people who are Seventh-day Adventists. Some of the dearest friends that I got, some of them are Seventh-day Adventists. Although the great move of, what you call the Voice of Prophecy, they're firmly against me. They said that I make the statement in the pulpit, and said, "I was God. And that this light that followed was an angel and I was God, And I come to the world to do great things to prove to people that I was God." Now, that's what the Voice of Prophecy said about me over in California. And ever who told that, you know told something that wasn't so.

...the word of God is quicker... more powerful,... sharper than a two-edged sword [listen], piercing even... the dividing asunder of the soul... the spirit,... the joints and the marrow, [and listen] and is a discerner of the thoughts and the intents of the heart.

[What was that? The Holy Spirit can come and say, "You did a certain, certain thing, and you did this and did that, you have this kind of disease and that; if you'll make this right, you'll do that." See? Discerner of the thoughts... ]

<sup>195</sup> And people say, "What is that? Why, it's mental telepathy. Why, it's a... He's a fortune-teller." See what I mean? It's a wicked, old adulterous world that don't know God.

JOHN1:1,14 HEB4:12

<sup>196</sup> It's quicker, smarter, more powerful than a two-edged sword, and a discerner of the thoughts and the intents of the heart. Now, what is it that knows the intents of the heart? God! You said, "Well, the Bible said, 'The Word of God.'" The Word of God is God!

In the beginning was the Word,... the Word was with God, and the Word was God... And the Word was made flesh, and dwelt among us,...

GEN18:13

<sup>197</sup> God discerns the thoughts. Abraham had his back turned and so did... God had His back turned to the tent, and Sarah laughed. And God turned around and said, "What made Sarah laugh?" A discerner of the thoughts of the heart! I want that to soak a little bit.

<sup>198</sup> Then when that kind of a ministry raises up, that God promised in the last days, what happens? "It's mental telepathy."

MATT10:25

<sup>199</sup> Did not they call the Lord, Himself, "Beelzebub"? He said, "If they've called the Master of the house 'Beelzebub,' how much more will they call His disciples?"

<sup>200</sup> I love you. It goes to show that you're interested enough, you don't have to come to an air-conditioned building to hear the Gospel. You're hungry enough to come to a place like this. God never would let us build nothing but this. We love it this a-way, just a little old shack, but that's the way we love it. God don't dwell in glamour; God dwells in humility. We love it like this. We're happy to come, and you are too, to sit in a place like this. No matter how hot it is, how much you sweat on your new suit, your new dress, that don't make any difference; you're listening to eternal life, to the Word of God that knows the thoughts of your heart. The pillar of fire that hung over the children of Israel, hangs here tonight. I could challenge it: there isn't a man could stand here under the power of the Holy Ghost without God just spilling him right out and telling him what he was. Right! There you are.

<sup>201</sup> What is it? What is it? It's the same Spirit that led the children of Israel to their rest, and they fell because of unbelief. Don't you fall. This was life. How many knows that? The third day, there came life on the third day of creation. The trinity: the Father was above the people in a pillar of fire, the Son was a man who talked to people and got them ready, the Holy Ghost was the third step, which was the Holy Ghost, God in the people. Life, Father, Son... The rest of God, the rest of Israel, and the rest of the church. The sabbath-keeping!

<sup>188</sup> So, if you've never received the Holy Ghost yet, you have never entered into God's rest. You don't have to say, "Oh, I couldn't, I want to smoke. I just couldn't do it, I'm a Christian. I really don't want to drink, but I-I'm a Christian. I just can't... Don't want to drink but yet I like to."

<sup>189</sup> If you lust after women, if you do all these ungodly things, you've never hit that rest period yet. You've never entered into your rest. And when you enter into this rest, you cease from your own worldly works like God did from His. Why? You're a part of God; you rest eternally. There you are. That's the sabbath, "Come unto Me, all ye that labor."

HEB4:7

<sup>190</sup> "Today He limited a certain day, after so long a time, in David, when you hear His voice harden not your hearts."

HEB4:10

<sup>191</sup> Just a word or two more here now, we'll close:

For he that is entered into Christ's rest

[“Come unto Me, all ye that labor and heavy laden”]

... you have ceased from your own works, as God did from his on the seventh day.

[Yours might have been the thirtieth year, the fortieth year, the fifth year, whatever it is, you have ceased from your works as God did from His, eternally. You no more want the things of the world, the world's dead to you.]

<sup>192</sup> Now, eleventh verse now, closely:

Let us labour therefore to enter into that rest,

[Not this one, not this one, but this one]

... lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief

<sup>193</sup> What is it? The pillar of fire is here. The Angel of the Lord is with us. He's doing the very same things that He said He would do. And people stumble around and say, "Ah, well, I guess it's all right. That's pretty good. Ah, I guess it's okay." Be careful that you don't fall in the same snare of unbelief. You take it with all your heart!

<sup>194</sup> Watch:

For the word of God

[Not the doctrine of the church]

Adventist church or any other Sabbatarian church, but only for the sake of the Gospel. We're going to get down, in a few minutes, on Pentecost, too. Yes, true. On Baptist, we're going to get down on that and show that God doesn't favor any denomination. That's right. He only favors the individual. And He doesn't deal with any denomination; He never did and He never will, according to His Word. But He deals with the individuals in every denomination. Yes, it's individuals God deals with.

<sup>80</sup> Now listen to this real clear, and if ever, any time, that question ever comes up to you, it'll be settled. Now, may the Lord help us.

<sup>81</sup> Now, closely:

For [the fourth verse] For he spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise,...

<sup>82</sup> Now, watch, He's talking about sabbath. How many knows that the word s-a-b-b-a-t-h is the Hebrew word that means "r-e-s-t"? How many knows that, in the English? Sure. Don't sabbath sound a funny word? It is.

<sup>83</sup> Don't sanctify sound a funny word? Sanctify is a Greek word; Sanctify means "to be made holy." Hebrew, means "make holy." Greek, means "sanctify." English, means "make clean."

<sup>84</sup> Sabbath means "a day of rest." That's what the old sabbath was, a day of rest. When you see rest, it means "sabbath." Look it up in your original manuscript, if you happen to have a Greek Bible, and find out if the word... If you got a Scofield Bible, look at your marginal reading on "rest" and see if it don't bring you back to the sabbath. Sabbath means "rest." All right.

Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left to us to enter into his [sabbath] rest,...

<sup>86</sup> Now, many people keeps days, like keeps sabbath day Saturday. Others make a Sunday an idol, a worship day. And by the grace of God and by God's Word, God helping me tonight, I can prove to you that they're both wrong. Both the Sunday worshipper and the sabbath keeper. They are absolutely both wrong according to the Word. And after all, it's the Word that we have to go by, not by what the Adventists say, or not by what the Protestant says, or the Catholic says. It's what the Bible says!

<sup>87</sup> Now, now watch:

For he spake in a certain place on the seventh day on this wise,...

[Now we're going to put up something like this and call this "God's rest," the seventh day.]

HEB4:4,5

<sup>88</sup> Now watch:

... And God

[Listen to the Scripture now.]

... God did rest the seventh day from all his work.

[God had a sabbath, and that seventh day was one thousand years long, a type of the Millennium.]

For he spake... of the seventh day on this wise, And God did rest... from all his work.

[The personal pronoun, all His works-He rested on the seventh day; that's God]

... And in this place [under the law]... If they shall enter into my rest.

2PET3:8

<sup>89</sup> God rested physically. For He had made the heavens and earth in six days, and on the seventh day He rested from all His work. He rested one thousand years. For the Bible said that one day on earth is a thousand years in heaven, a thousand years in heaven is one day on the earth. How many knows the Scripture says that in II Peter? All right, God rested on the seventh day and He spoke on this wise at a certain place.

HEB4:4,5

For He spake in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, And God rested... from all his works.

And in this place again [the law], If they shall enter into my rest.

[He give the Jews, on their way from the promised land... or from Egypt to the promised land, the seventh day sabbath.]

HEB4:6

<sup>91</sup> Now listen:

Seeing therefore it remaineth that some must enter therein, and to they whom it was first preached

[the rest, God give them the law, and the sabbath was the fourth commandment]

entered not in because of unbelief:

<sup>92</sup> Now, watch, He's talking about the law. How they entered in... wasn't mixed with faith, they didn't keep it. They kept the sabbath in a memorial, that they were going to a land of sabbath to have everlasting rest from all their troubles and all their worries, no more taskmasters, no more restless nights. They were on their way to the promised land of rest. It flowed with milk and honey. The grapes was so big that two men packed one bunch over their shoulders. O what a land of blessed rest! But they failed to get it when they got there because of their unbelief. They were turned aside at only forty miles, from where they left in Egypt to the promised land. And they were forty years getting there because of their unbelief. God gave them their prophet, gave them His sign, give them the pillar of fire, showed signs and wonders and preached the <sup>181</sup> I went back. (I just come from Canada.) And I thought, "Here I am... My, people... What's the matter with me? I don't do that." I went to washing on my car. I thought, "God, I'm getting to be an old man, and here I am... I've fought, I've cried, I've begged, and anything I get's a big blaspheme.

<sup>182</sup> Anything... If somebody say something bad about you, "Oh, the old holy roller!", something like that...

<sup>183</sup> I thought about that, and a voice come to me, said, "Them men's all right if they're doing that, but I never called you to do that. I called you to take the Sword and stand there like Joshua and challenge, brother. Not fool around with some old society or some church organization, but challenge the devil. Stand in the forefront, make right right, and wrong wrong. Preach the Word and find out who's got the faith to believe it. Lay it on out there."

ISA28:9-13

<sup>184</sup> I got to speeding up on that car, all the time washing, I said, "Thank you, Lord. Thank you, Lord." Felt good then. "It's all right, Lord, I will grip 'er a little tighter, and I want to die with it in my hand."

... who can I make known doctrine? [Listen!]... tables are full of v... them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts. [Now watch.]

For precept... as that upon precept, precept upon precept;... line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

For with stammering lips and with other tongues will I speak to this people.

To whom it is said, This is the sabbath wherein ye shall cause the weary to rest;... this is the refreshment: yet they would not hear.

For the word of the Lord came unto them [somebody preached it] precept upon precept,... upon precept; line upon line... upon line; here a little, and there a little; that they might go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.

MATT11:28

<sup>185</sup> What is the rest? When did the rest come? When people spoke with other tongues and had stammering lips. Stammering lips, they didn't speak nothing; they stammered. When did that happen? On the day of Pentecost when the Holy Ghost come! That is the rest: the Holy Ghost. Jesus said, "Come unto Me, all ye that are weary and heavy laden, and I will give you rest. I will give you life, eternal life (Zoe), God's own life." God will come into you and be a part of you. He will give you a birth and make you a son and daughter.

<sup>186</sup> Now, watch, that was the third rest He gave. The first: God received it from His work. Second: Israel received it in the law. Third: the church received it as a part of God.

<sup>187</sup> Three is the number of life. How many knows that? Every time you see three, it's life. Notice, when God created the earth, on the third day

<sup>172</sup> Oh, you say, “Oh, He arose from the dead historically.” But what about Him being the same today if He rose from the dead? You say, “Ah, that ain’t so.” Now, there you are! You have the resurrection the way you want it, and God’s got it the way He wants it.

MATT28:20 JOHN14:12 HEB13:8

<sup>173</sup> But the thing of it is, the Bible said, (what we know is the truth) that He would confirm the Word and, “These things that I do shall you do the same, and I will be with you always, to the end of the world. Jesus Christ the same yesterday, today, and forever.” That’s what the Word says.

<sup>174</sup> Now what’s the sabbath?

*... all tables are full of vomit and... no one clean.
Who shall he teach knowledge?*

[Not worldly knowledge, spiritual knowledge].

*...Who shall he teach knowledge?... whom shall he make...
understand doctrine?*

<sup>175</sup> “Oh, bless God, our organization don’t believe this. They wouldn’t put up with that.” Don’t care what your organization believes. What does God’s Word say about it. “Ah, well, our pastors, you know, are educated.” Oh, sure. Certainly, got so much education they left God out of it. Truly, for you can tell them the Word and they’ll walk around and say, “Well, I don’t believe it just that way.” Oh, you sissified thing. Let me tell you...

<sup>176</sup> Looky here:

... who shall he make... known doctrine? them that are weaned from the breast, and... them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts.

<sup>177</sup> The other day, a neighbor of mine come and he said, “Billy, a certain pastor here in the city, the most lovely little person you ever seen...” Said, “Wife and I were sitting with our pajamas on, about midnight, and that little pastor run in and he drank some coffee with us and he took out over to the other neighbor’s house, and he shook hands with them. They was having a little card game and he sat down and played cards with them.” Said, “Oh, he was the most sociable little fellow you ever seen.” Said, “Oh, we love him. We wouldn’t get rid of him for nothing.”

<sup>178</sup> I stood there a little bit, I thought, “Well?”

<sup>179</sup> Said, “Oh, don’t you think that every church needs a man like that?” (Huh?) I couldn’t answer that. He said, “In another little place,” said “they had such a lovely place. This minister and his wife, lovely people, went out and deal with the children so much till they had a Bible school.” And said, “They just had so many, they overflowed the thing with little children.” Said, “My, he can tell all kinds of little stories to the little children.”

Gospel to them. And they walked out after the fishes and loaves, and fell in the wilderness, and their carcasses perished in the wilderness.

JOHN6:31

<sup>93</sup> Jesus, at the fountain, He said, “Our fathers eat manna in the wilderness for forty years.”

JOHN6:32,35,48,50

<sup>94</sup> He said, “I AM that bread of life that come from God out of heaven. I am the bread of life. Moses didn’t give you that bread. My Father give that bread. And I am the bread that comes from God out of heaven. If a man eats this, he will never die.” There’s the difference.

<sup>95</sup> Now, watch. They said they drank from the rock that was in the wilderness, for the space of so many years.

EX17:6 1COR10:4

<sup>96</sup> He said, “I am that rock!” Blessed be His holy name. “I am that rock.” How could He be that rock? That rock was a spiritual rock; it followed the children of Israel. And Moses had a stick in his hand, which was a judgment rod of God. And God told him to smite the rock, and he smote the rock. And when he did, waters came from the rock. And Christ was that rock, and the judgment of God’s penalty of sin was struck upon Him. God caused to lay on Him the iniquity of us all, and that iniquity bursted forth His heart. And from His heart poured the Holy Spirit like rivers of water to a perishing, dying people. “I am that rock that was in the wilderness.” “Why,” he said, “do you mean to tell me...”

<sup>97</sup> Said, “Moses, the one that told you that, he longed to see My day. And he saw it in portion.”

<sup>98</sup> He said, “Now, you mean to tell us that you’re greater than Moses? That you seen Moses? And Moses has been dead eight hundred years.” Said, “Now we know that you got a devil [in other words, ‘crazy’]. We know that you’re crazy.”

JOHN8:58 JOHN16:28 HEB13:8

<sup>99</sup> He said, “Before Abraham was, I AM. I was the great I AM that was in the burning bush. I’m that fire that was in the burning bush. I’m that Angel that went before them.” And He said, “I come from God and I go back to God.” And He came from God, made flesh and dwelt among us, went back to that same pillar of fire. And here He is tonight, after two thousand years (the same yesterday, today, and forever) doing the same thing, leading His blessed children. And many are coming in because of unbelief.

HEB4:7

<sup>100</sup> Now, He said He limited a day, when God finished His work. Then He limited another day, and on this wise, that if they shall hear, if they shall come (they keep the sabbaths, go on through the new moons and so forth)... There’s where the Advent brethren tries to take you back.

HEB4:6

<sup>101</sup> Let us read on. Notice:

Seeing therefore... that some must enter therein, and them to whom it was preached first entered not in because of unbelief:

<sup>102</sup> Now, the seventh verse (oh, my), I say the Scripture is mathematically inspired. I say the Scripture is, in every way, inspired. The mathematics of the Bible are perfect.

<sup>103</sup> Did you notice this United States is number thirteen in everything it does? You know it was established the thirteen colonies? You know the flag had thirteen stars in it first? You know everything that the United States does is in the number thirteen? Did you know it appears in the Bible in Revelations thirteen? Certainly does! The little beast, the lamb that come up out of water, not thickness and multitudes of people,... not out of the water, but out of a land where there's no one. It had two little horns: civil and ecclesiastic powers. And he was a lamb: freedom of religion. And after awhile they went together and he spoke like the dragon and exercised all the power that Rome did before him. That's coming to our nation. You mark it down. You watch the Confederation of Churches and the Catholic unite together, and watch what takes place.

REV17:14

<sup>104</sup> People who follow the pillar of fire will certainly have a rough time, but they're ready for the translation at that time (that's right) just ready to go. "For the Lamb overcome them," said the Bible. "And them that followed Him because they were called the chosen and the faithful, the elected of God." Keep from getting on to that prophecy now, so we can run this on.

HEB4:7,8

<sup>105</sup> Listen close, the seventh chapter,... I mean the fourth chapter, the seventh verse. Seven is the number of completion. Three is the number of life. Seven is the number of completion, and this gives the complete sabbath.

And again,

[Remember, he spoke, "God" on this wise. Then, he spoke of the "law" on this wise. And then, again, "He limited a day": third day, third time.]

...Again, he limited a day, a certain day, saying in David, To-day, after so long a time;... To-day, after so long a time; as it is said, To-day if you will hear his voice, harden not your heart. [Watch!]

... if Jesus had given them rest, [a sabbath]... would he not afterwards have spoken of another day.

[The dispensations change with Jesus Christ: from the law to grace, from works unto grace, from something you do to what something God did, upon your own merits or upon His merits; it changed.]

EX20:8,13-15 EX32:19

<sup>106</sup> When Moses come out of the wilderness with the law, he said, "Thou shalt not commit adultery. Thou shalt not steal. Thou shalt not kill. Keep

You made a doctrine out of it and separated yourself from the rest of it, and God moved right away and left you sitting there. That's right!

<sup>164</sup> What happened to you Assembly of God, Old General Council? You made a organization out of yours, and God moved right away and left you sitting there; now you're nothing but a cold, formal bunch like the rest of them are. And the pillar of fire moves on! Hallelujah!

ISA28:8

<sup>165</sup> All tables are full of vomit. Look at the Lord's Supper. Why, they even... I was at a place they take old loaf bread. And the bread supposed to be made with unleavened bread. And they pass it out to sinners, cigarette smokers, prostitutes, harlots, as long as they got their name on the book. And you Baptists even call it "closed communion."

<sup>166</sup> Now, you Baptists crow a little and God will take your horn off. That's exactly right, you won't be able to toot it. Closed communion: you separate yourself, seem to be holier than thou art. Remember, this is a Baptist tabernacle. Well, that's what you get, you organize yourself. Oh, you say, "We're not a organization." Yes, you are! Certainly, you are. You say, "We're a fellowship." Yeah, to anybody that comes in the door and teach just the way you believe it, it's all right. But one... You won't throw him out, but you'll excommunicate him from your brotherhood. That's exactly right. Oh, you got a way of doing it. So has God got a way of doing it. But God's church will move on, the pillar of fire won't stand for that. All tables are full of vomit.

ISA28:8

<sup>167</sup> Now listen. Now this is going to shock you just a minute. Listen as I read the Word. Who was this? The prophet Isaiah:

... all tables are full of vomit... so... there is nothing clean.

<sup>168</sup> Just "dog eat dog." Come to the church: women bob off their hair, wear shorts, get out and see the men coming down the street; lawn-mowing the yard; little girls want to hear somebody give that bull dog or wolf whistle whatever it is, you know [Brother Branham whistles.]. Oh, you think you're cute, don't you?

<sup>169</sup> And you men walk down the street with a cigar in your mouth, and a deacon on the board. You look like a dehorned Texas steer. And then you think that you're somebody. That's exactly right. No wonder all tables... Walk up and take the communion and act like you're somebody, and cheat and steal and lie, through the week. What's the matter with you? All tables are full of vomit.

<sup>170</sup> "Oh, I take the Lord's Supper. Sure, we do it in our church. Jesus said He would raise us up in the last days if we took the Lord's Supper."

1COR11:29,30

<sup>171</sup> "But he that eateth and drinketh unworthily, eateth and drinketh damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body. For this cause many are sick and weakly among you, and many are dead": old, dead, formal churches, the Spirit of God's gone out of you and the pillar of fire ain't there no more. You deny divine healing. You deny the resurrection.

... has ceased from his... works, as God did from his.

JOHN5:24

<sup>156</sup> You might been twenty years old, you might have been thirty years old, you might have been fifty years old, but the minute that you hear the voice of God knocking at your heart, don't harden it. Then enter, "He that heareth My words, believeth on Him that sent Me, has everlasting (eternal) life, and shall never come into condemnation but passed from death unto life."

<sup>157</sup> "Say, Brother Branham, what happens?" You get the Holy Ghost, Christ comes into you. "Is that right?" Turn with me to Isaiah, the twenty-eighth chapter, and let's read. Isaiah, the twenty-eighth chapter, see what the prophet said about it. Matthew twenty-eight, begin at the eighth verse.

<sup>158</sup> Here's the predicament of the last days (we got to close in a minute):

For all tables will be full of vomit and... there is no place clean.

PROV26:11 ISA28:8 2PET2:22

<sup>159</sup> Let me stop a minute. As Ernie said the other night, he was talking to somebody... Ernie Fandler, this brother here from Switzerland, he said, "I stopped and let it soak in." I want this to soak in:

... there is no place clean... For all the tables will be full of vomit...

And as a dog goes to its vomit, and a sow... to her wallow, so does the people turn back.

<sup>160</sup> What's the matter with you Methodists? You used to have the light. What happened? God took it out of your hand and He give it to the Nazarenes. What happened to you Nazarenes? You once had the light. God took it out of your hands and give it to the Pentecostals. Correct. You Church of God and the rest of you holiness people, because you rejected the light, you denominated yourself and said, "We won't believe any more than this." God moved right on out and showed you He had people who would follow Him.

<sup>161</sup> What happened to you Pentecostals? You had the light. God's took it away from you. The pillar of fire moves on. Every time the pillar of fire moved, the church moved with it. And when Luther organized out of the Catholic church, his own church, the pillar of fire moved and Wesley went with it. Wesley organized and made his denomination, and the pillar of fire moved and the Nazarenes went with it. The Nazarenes organized, and the Church of God went with it and said they wasn't a denomination, but they were. Then what happened?

<sup>162</sup> The next thing happened, the Pentecostals seen the fire and away they went. And what did you do? Made a doctrine out of tongues and organized it-everybody had to speak in tongues before they got the Holy Ghost-then God moved right away and left you sitting where you're at.

the sabbath day holy." When Jesus come out of the wilderness... When Moses come, the devil tempted him. As soon as the devil tempted him, he heeded to it. Moses had a weak spot. How many knows what it was? Temper. And as soon as he seen them worshipping the golden calf, he threw down the commandments and broke them, showing you that priesthood would be broken. And God give them to him again.

MATT4:3 LUKE4:3

<sup>107</sup> But when Jesus came out of the wilderness, forty days of fasting, He was hungry, the only weak spot He had. And the devil come to Him, and said, "If thou be the Son of God, turn these stones into bread. Do a miracle here. Let me see you do it and I will believe you."

MATT4:4 LUKE4:4

<sup>108</sup> Jesus said, "It's written, 'Man shall not live by bread alone but by every word that proceedeth out of the mouth of God.'" He knowed he didn't meet Moses there, for He went to the Word!

MATT4:5,6

<sup>109</sup> Took Him up on the pinnacle, temple, said, "If Thou be the Son of God, cast Thyself down." (and coated, not quoted, but coated the Scripture). Said, "It's written, 'He give the angels charge concerning thee lest at any time You dash Your foot against a stone. He will bear Thee up.'"

MATT4:7 LUKE4:5

<sup>110</sup> And Jesus went straight to the Word, and rebuked him!

MATT4:8,9 LUKE4:6,7

<sup>111</sup> Took Him up on the mountain and showed Him the United States and Germany and Switzerland and all the nations of the world that ever would be, said, "They're all mine. I do with them whatever I want to." (No wonder we got wars and troubles.) Said, "I do with them..." (No wonder women dress... and get by with it by the law; they're all governed by the devil; that's what the Bible said.) Satan said, "They're mine. I do with them whatever I want to." Said, "If You'll worship me, I will make You king like I am."

MATT4:10 MATT6:10 LUKE4:8 LUKE11:2

<sup>112</sup> Jesus said, "It's written, 'Thou shall worship the Lord, thy God only shalt thou serve.' Get thee behind Me, Satan!" Why? Jesus knew that He'd fall heir to them in this great Millennium, when His kingdom would come, "Thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven." There'll be no more shorts wore. There'll be no more drinking. There'll be no more lust. There'll be no more adultery. There'll be no more death. There'll be no more sorrow. He falls heir to every nation. They are His. That's right. They are His, and He will fall heir, but Satan has them for a space of time-that is, the day that we're living.

HEB4:7,8

<sup>113</sup> But:

... he limited a... day, saying... To-day, after so long a time;... to harden not your heart.

For if Jesus would have given them rest,... would he not afterwards have spoken of another day.

GAL1:8 HEB4:8

<sup>114</sup> My Adventist brother, look at that. Paul here said... And Paul said in Galatians 1:8, if you're taking down the scriptures, Galatians 1:8, "If an angel from heaven comes and preach any other gospel besides this that I've preached, let him be accursed." Paul said, "If Jesus would have given them a rest day..."

MATT5:21,22,27,28

<sup>115</sup> Well, look, when He come off the mountain... He come down then; He'd overcome the devil. He was anointed, ready for His ministry. He said, "You've heard them say, them of old times, 'Thou shalt not kill,' but I say unto you that whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause has killed already. You've heard them say, them of old times" (this day, the sabbath keepers)... "You've heard them say, back, them of old times, 'We're under the law, thou shalt not commit adultery,' had to be in the act to be guilty. But I say unto you that whosoever looketh upon a woman to lust after her has committed adultery with her already in his heart." Different, passed right by that fourth commandment. But did He give them rest?

HEB4:6,7

<sup>116</sup> Let's see what He said:

David said,... after so long a time there would be a perfect rest come.

God rested from His works on the seventh day.

[God blessed the sabbath day and give it to the Jews in the wilderness on this wise].

They entered... in because of unbelief,

[because the Word not mixed with faith].

...And again, he limited a certain day, saying in David,... after so long a time;

[hundreds of years after David was dead, the Son of David would rise up, which is Jesus, "And if they shall hear My voice, harden not your heart." God's going to speak to the heart.]

HEB4:8

<sup>117</sup> Now, watch. The ninth verse now, to you that's reading:

... Jesus would have given them rest, [the eighth verse]...

he would... have spoke of another day.

<sup>118</sup> If there was to be a sabbath, if there was to be a Sunday-keeping, then He would have spoke of it. If He said, "Now there's no more sabbath, no more keeping the seventh day, what I want you to keep is Sunday," He'd of said it, Paul said he did. He'd have said, "You all worship on Sunday; that'll be the rest." Well, if he'd have wanted them to keep the sabbath, he'd have said, "Just remain keeping the seventh day. But now I want you to keep Sunday, the eighth day." No! He never said it.

HEB4:8

<sup>119</sup> He said, "If Jesus would have given them a day, would He not have we got. We don't need children's programs and little soup suppers. What we need's a rugged old Gospel and men of faith with the sword hanging out there, and challenging. What we need today, not some petty theology and some theory of some man-made click, we need the rugged Gospel preached in the light and the power and demonstration of the Holy Ghost.

<sup>151</sup> Notice here now:

As he said, he limited another day, saying in David,...

... if Jesus would have given them rest,... would he not... have spoken of another day.

But there remaineth... a rest to the people of God.

For he that has entered into his rest,... has ceased from his own works, as God did from his.

MATT11:27

<sup>152</sup> Now where we going to read? Matthew the twenty... eleventh chapter, twenty-seventh verse:

All things that the Father delivered unto me... are delivered unto me of my Father [rather]: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father [all right]; neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son, and he to whomsoever the Son will reveal him.

<sup>153</sup> See, it's not how much you learn, how much the bishop wants you to know, it's how much God wants you to know. If you can't see this revelation, don't ask the bishop; ask God. Don't ask your pastor; ask God. The Son reveals Him, "He," personal pronoun.

MATT11:28-30 HEB4:8

<sup>154</sup> Listen! This will shock you. Here's the commandment. Paul said, "If He would have left another day, He would have spoke of it." But here's what He said:

Come unto me, all ye that labour and are heavy laden, and I will give you [sabbath] rest.

Take my yoke upon thee, and learn of me; for I am meek and lowly of heart: and ye shall find sabbath unto your soul.

For my yoke is easy, and my burdens are light.

<sup>155</sup> Watch what Paul said:

... if Jesus would have given them rest, he would have... spoke of another day.

But he limited a... day, saying... David,... after so long a time;... when you hear his voice, harden not your heart.

And there remaineth [listen now, ninth verse] There remaineth therefore a rest [a sabbath] to the people of God.

For he [the man or woman] that has entered into his rest,

[“Come unto Me all ye that labor, and heavy laden, I will give you rest”] the one was at the burning bush.

GEN18:8,10,13

<sup>141</sup> He was the One here in the presence of Abraham in a body of flesh that eat the calf, and drank the milk from the cow, and eat butter on hoecakes. Blessed be the Holy name of God. Walked right down there and said, "I will not leave..." And He had His back turned. He said, "Abraham, I'm going to visit you, and you're going to bring that child; You're a hundred years old now, and Sarah's ninety." (and Sarah in the tent went... laughed.) He said, "What made Sarah laugh?" (Behind Him! The tent between them!)

<sup>142</sup> Abraham said, "Sarah did you laugh?"

<sup>143</sup> "No, I never."

GEN18:15 HEB13:8

<sup>144</sup> Said, "Yes, you did!" What kind of a telepathy is that? What kind of a mind reading was that? He does the same today! He's Jehovah-jireh, Jehovah-rapha, the same yesterday, today and forever, He never fails.

<sup>145</sup> Look at Him, there He stands, walked right out and talked to Abraham and vanished in his sight. And the great patriarch Abraham said he talked face to face with God-Elohim, the same God. You get it? Not no three people, brother. Three offices of the same person.

<sup>146</sup> In the beginning was the same. He was that great Spirit Fountain where all the trueness, all the love, all the peace, everything that was pure was in this fountain. It begin to form a body, a theophany, the kind of body that we go to. Not a glorified body, but an angelic body like; has shape, form.

<sup>147</sup> Every time I see a tree, I think, "That tree is a negative; there's a positive somewhere." That tree was made off of something, an intelligence made it. And all this earth does is reflect the heavenly. The Bible said so. And if there is a tree here that has to perish, there's one in glory that won't perish.

2COR5:1

<sup>148</sup> If I see a man... I see a lovely little young couple: man and his wife, walking down the street, sweethearts together. What does it reflect? Blessed be the name of the Lord. There's one in heaven that'll never perish. If this earthly tabernacle be dissolved, we have one already waiting, the theophany.

JOHN14:20

<sup>149</sup> Then you get the trinity: the great Spirit dwelling in the Son Jesus, Jesus dwelling into the church. "At that day, you'll know that I'm in the Father, the Father in Me, and I in you." All that God was, He poured into Jesus; and all Jesus was, He poured into the church. There you are. "I in the Father, the Father in Me. I in you, and you in Me." There's a... There's the body.

<sup>150</sup> That's what's the matter with the church. They've been taught little old petty, sissified, old lady doctrine of some sort. Run around and have soup suppers and card parties. No wonder we got a bunch of chaos that spoke of it?"

HEB4:9,10

<sup>120</sup> Now, the ninth verse, get ready:

There remaineth therefore a rest to the people of God

[a sabbath-keeping, to the people of God].

For he that has entered into his [Christ's] rest, he also has ceased from his own works, as God did from his on the sabbath.

HEB4:7

<sup>121</sup> See it? Now let's take some Scripture and back this up. All right, when God made the world in six days, he rested on the seventh day, and never worked any more. Blessed be the name of the Lord. He built the world, put the creation on it, and went to rest and never come back again to build any more world. He finished the works, and went to rest, now... after that thousand years, then sin come in. Then Christ was represented, the Lamb was represented. Now, the Jews was given this as a type of the seventh-day rest.

Now he limited another day, saying in David,... after so long a time,

[There's coming another rest.]

<sup>122</sup> Now what is that rest? Turn with me to Matthew the eleventh chapter, and the last part of the eleventh chapter of St. Matthew. That's when Jesus ended his sermon on the mount, and you'll see what He said.

MATT5:22,28

<sup>123</sup> He said, "Whosoever looketh upon a woman, to lust after her, has committed adultery with her already in his heart, Whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause, has killed the brother." All these things, and He never touched that fourth commandment (that sabbath). Now He's ending up, and the sabbath is the great promise of God. It's a rest.

MATT11:27

<sup>124</sup> Now watch here, when He got through ending up the beatitudes. Here He says, twenty-seventh verse of the eleventh chapter of St. Matthew (where He was teaching the beatitudes in the fifth chapter):

All things are delivered unto me of my Father: and no man knoweth the Son, but the Father;

[See, you can't know one without knowing the other, because He was the Father manifested in flesh]

...neither knoweth any man the Father, save the Son,

[Looks like people could see that and not argue, certainly].

MATT28:20 JOHN14:19 1JHN5:7

<sup>125</sup> God is not three people. If He's three gods, then we're heathens. Which one is God? They're, all three, one God. It's three offices of the same God. He was the Father, in the form of the Holy Spirit in that pillar of fire in the wilderness. He was the Son, when He used the Sonship office. "A little while and the world seeth me no more. I will go away and I will come again and be with you, even in you, to the end of the world.” See? He’s the Fatherhood, the Sonship, and the Holy Ghost, too. It’s all the very same God working in three different offices: Fatherhood, Sonship, Holy Ghost. Never... I John 5:7 said, “There are three that bear record in heaven, Father, Son, Holy Ghost, these three are one.”

JOHN14:8

<sup>126</sup> Thomas said unto Him, “Lord, show us the Father, and it’ll satisfy him.”

JOHN14:9

<sup>127</sup> He said, “I’ve been so long with you and you don’t know Me?” Said, “When you see Me, you’ve seen the Father. And why say, ‘Show us the Father?’”

<sup>128</sup> Now the Oneness took it, the oneness group of people, and try to make Father, Son and Holy Ghost, just one office and one place, and like your finger, one. That’s wrong. God could not... Jesus could not be His own father. If He was, then He was a... Well, how could He be His own father?

MATT1:18 MARK12:29 LUKLE1:35

<sup>129</sup> And if God is a man, separated from the Holy Ghost, He had two fathers. For the Bible said that the Holy Ghost overshadowed Mary and she conceived, and the Bible said in Matthew 1:18 that “that thing which is conceived in her is of the Holy Ghost.” Then which is His father, the Holy Ghost or God? Both the same Spirit, or He had an illegitimate birth by two spirits. That’s a Catholic dogma, and it never was a Bible teaching. And Martin Luther brought it out with a lot of other Catholicism that’s in Lutheran church. Wesley followed on with it, and it’s still going on, but it’s an error. It’s not the truth, never was it. Never was it a Bible doctrine. Never was it a commandment in the Bible, to teach three gods. There’s one God. Jesus said, “Hear ye, O Israel, I’m the Lord your God.” One God, not three gods.

<sup>130</sup> In Africa they baptize once for the Father, and once for the Son, and once for the Holy Ghost. And then a poor Jew comes around and say, “Which one of them is your God?” Which one is? The Father, Son, or Holy Ghost?” They’re, all three, one. The Bible said they were one.

ISA7:14 MATT1:23 COL2:9 1TIM3:16

<sup>131</sup> Jesus was a house that God lived in, the Bible said that, I Timothy 3:16, “Without controversy” (that’s argument) “great is the mystery of godliness. For God was manifested in the flesh, seen of angels, received on... preached, believed on, and received up into glory.” God was! The Bible said, “His name shall be called Emmanuel,” which is by interpretation, “God with us.” The Bible said that Jesus, in Him dwelt the fullness of the Godhead bodily.

<sup>132</sup> As we had it the other night, God in the beginning was Spirit. And then from God went out the Logos, or the theophany which was a form of a man called the Son of God (prefigured). He came in earth, in a body of flesh, even before He came in Jesus Christ. Now swallow that one once, brother. I will prove it to you.

EX33:18,22,23

<sup>133</sup> When Moses saw Him, he said, “Let me see Your form, Lord.” And God hid him in a rock. And when He passed by, he said, “It was the back part of a man.” That was that theophany. It’s exactly. Then that theophany had to be made flesh. Not another person, but the same person had to become flesh to take the sting out of death. Like a bee when he stings, it leaves a stinger. And he never left that... he could put a sting in human flesh because it’s sin. But, brother, when he stung that Emmanuel’s flesh, he lost his stinger. Yes, sir! He can buzz, but he ain’t got no stinger no more.

1COR15:55,57

<sup>134</sup> No wonder, Paul, when they go to chop his head off, said, “O death, where is your sting? You can buzz and hum as much as you want to. Grave, where is your victory? But thanks be to God who gives us the victory through Jesus Christ.” There you are. It taken God Himself to do that. He came and was manifested in flesh. He returned back into Spirit.

GEN18:1,2,6-8

<sup>135</sup> You say, “Brother Branham, you never told us yet, when God was made flesh before he came in Christ.” When Abraham was sitting under his tent one day, there come two angels and God walking up to him in human flesh. They had dust on their clothes and were weary and they sat down. And Abraham went out and took the calf away from a cow and killed it, and made some lamb chops. Went out and had Sarah take some corn meal and sift it, and make some hoecakes. And got some butter from the cow and got some buttermilk, and took it out there and set it down. And God ate it! Hallelujah!

<sup>136</sup> That’s the reason:

My faith looks up to Thee,
Thou Lamb of Calvary.

GEN18:17,18

<sup>137</sup> You think that’s a big thing for God? God, who made all the potash and calciums and everything in the world, He come down to visit Abraham; He said, “You think I will keep it from you, seeing that you’re the heir of the world?” Amen, “I will not keep it from you.”

<sup>138</sup> God just got a... We’re made out of sixteen elements. He just got some potash and some calcium, some petroleum and cosmic light, went, “Whheww! Step in that, Gabriel.” A body!

<sup>139</sup> “Whheww! Step in that, Wormwood.” He stepped in it. Two angels out of heaven.

EX3:2,14 JOHN8:58

<sup>140</sup> God reached and got a handful of it, “Whheww!” stepped in it Hissself. Come down and was hungry. Blessed... What about that, Adventist brethren, that won’t eat meat? We’re going to get into that after while. God Almighty, Jehovah! Find out if that same name isn’t translated the same One at the burning bush. Hallelujah! And when He stood on earth, He said, “Before Abraham was, I AM that same one at the burning bush.” That’s right, Elohim! See if it isn’t the same. He was
