Introduction

The remarkable ministry of William Branham was the response of the Holy Spirit to the prophecies of the Scriptures in Malachi 4:5,6, Luke 17:30, and Revelations 10:7. This worldwide ministry has been the culmination of many other Bible prophecies, and a continuation of the working of God by His Spirit at this End time. This ministry was spoken of in the Scriptures, to prepare the people for the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

We pray that the printed Word will become written in your heart as you prayerfully read this message.

While every effort has been made to provide an accurate unabridged transcription, the English audio files are the best representation of the sermons spoken by Bro Branham.

Audio and transcribed versions of over 1,100 sermons preached by William Branham are available for free downloading and printing in many languages at:

worldwide meeting, where it looks like that even tens of thousands times thousands, and thousands of thousands of raw heathens, of pagans, and so forth might come to You. O Lord God, with Your Spirit in my heart, I face Your altar tonight, and face You, and say, "Help me, O God." My heart's a burning with zeal. I love You, Lord. I give myself to You in service. Lead me anywhere You want to lead me; send me anywhere You want to send me, Lord; just speak and I'll go.

<sup>96</sup> Bless my church. Bless Brother Neville. Bless all the people here, the strangers in our gates, and these pastors that'll be speaking time by time on through the evening. I pray, God, that You'll bless their ministry. Bless Brother Neville. Bless Brother Junie Jackson, Brother Beeler, all these other ministers. Bless them, Father. Give us a great year in 1960. We, Lord, who know that we have met You face to face, and know what it means to be born again of Your Spirit, give us of Thy eternal grace to serve You. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.

PHIP4:7 1PET1:8

<sup>97</sup> Do you love Him? 1960. Don't let it be that I turned a new page. Don't let it be that I tried to start a new life. But let it be that I met God, and from that time, that time on, I had peace that passes understanding; I had joy unspeakable and full of glory; I had a satisfaction even if death should come to me, I will be in the arms of God, minute after my last breath's drawn.

<sup>98</sup> No matter what comes or goes, let them blow it up Sunday night if they want to. If they want to, the bomb will not be through cracking, till we'll be in glory with Him in the millennium. There's nothing can harm us. Hallelujah!

<sup>99</sup> I'm so glad I met God. I'm so glad that I can say, "From that time," pin it down to that spot. When I met God, something happened to me, I was changed from that minute. I've been changed ever since. I'm so glad to be on this road tonight as a testimony to the glory and the power of God.

<sup>100</sup> A little old something out here, and God come down there and give me His grace, and saved me, and healed me, and filled me with His Spirit, and let me preach His Gospel, which is the greatest honor there is in the world. From that time until this time, I've never had one regret. But I've been thankful all these days, and will be through all eternity that I met God. God bless you.

From That Time

<sup>1</sup> It's sure good to be back and hear the brother pastor give the testimony of the grace of God with his little girl. That's just like the Lord Jesus to do things like that. Certainly is.

<sup>2</sup> Now, we are very happy tonight to have with us, one of our guests here at the (as we call it) the prayer service on New Year's night, a good friend of mine, Brother Ernie Fandler, one of the converts to the Lord Jesus Christ, a trophy of grace. Originating, his home in Switzerland, is where he came from. And I believe the brother with him there... They're living in Shawano now, a German by descent, a Brother Waters. We're happy to have them with us tonight.

<sup>3</sup> Then we have also with us tonight a precious brother of the faith, South Africa, Brother David duPlessis. We're happy to have him with us too. And David and I are anticipating, or praying, the Lord to give us some great work together this coming year into Africa, and different parts of the world.

<sup>4</sup> Brother David is here now to talk it over, and pray over with it, between now and Monday to decide just when, and where into Africa, and different parts of the world to go. As Brother David has had a very prominent office with the Pentecostal World Convention, and also is well known with many great religious leaders throughout the entire world. And has been very influential in persuading and causing, as far along as we are now, to help bring the body of Jesus Christ together of all denominations of faith. Regardless of what church they have, or what brand they're branded, it's the church who Christ died for.

<sup>5</sup> And I've often thought of that. I used to help round up the cattle many times out West. We'd go up, Brother David, and sit out there where they drove the cattle up through the drift fence, up into the mountains to feed them, let them graze on the pastures of the forest. While the meadows was growing in the bottom, wild meadows, and then they'd cut the meadows and feed the cattle out through the wintertime, when there was blizzard up in the mountains.

<sup>6</sup> I used to sit there on the saddle and watch the ranger bringing those cattle through. And each ranch in the bottom that could raise a ton of hay... If they could raise fifty ton of hay, that meant they could put fifty cattle. If they could raise a thousand ton of hay, a thousand head of cattle could go through.

<sup>7</sup> Each man carrying a brand on his cows. They watched the brands, of course, the different ranches, so they wouldn't get them mixed up. And then when the... The ranger, he wasn't so interested in what kind of brands was going through, because there's all kinds of brands. But there's one thing that he really had to check: that was the blood tag. They had to be registered Hereford, or they couldn't get through the gate. They would turn them back, see.

<sup>8</sup> And I think that's the way it'll be at the judgment. It'll not be what kind of brand we're wearing, but if the blood tag's there. That's the thing that'll count, the blood tag.

<sup>9</sup> And I'm very happy to have Brother David with us. And I see Brother Estle Beeler was here just a moment ago. I seen him raise up back there from somewhere. And other ministers who we're wanting to hear from tonight. And then, I guess Brother Ruddell and them will be coming in, because they're going to stay till midnight.

<sup>10</sup> However, Brother David can't stay till midnight. He's a very wanted man everywhere. And as soon Brother Rogers heard that he was over here, why he's going to send and have him over there at ten. So that means he will be leaving here pretty short to get way out there in South Louisville. And I thought it would be nice, if it would be all right with Brother David, if we had him to come up and speak what's on his heart. Preach for us, do whatever the Lord lays. We'd all like to hear Brother David duPlessis from South Africa.

<sup>11</sup> Let me say this, that when I was over in Africa, in my great campaign the Lord gave us over there, his brother was my interpreter. Brother Justus, I believe his name is, Brother Justus. And a real fine family of people are these duPlessis brothers. I think there's... I guess they're all ministers, as far as I know, and maybe father too that was a minister. And they're from a fine family of people. And Brother David packs a great name amongst all the churches, and denominations around the world.

<sup>12</sup> And Brother David, I'd like for you to come up now and speak for us, or whatever God's put on your heart to say, come right up. And I'm very happy to introduce to my church tonight, this is Brother Orman Neville, our pastor. And to the church, this is one of my precious friends and fellow warriors in the service of God, Brother David duPlessis of South Africa. God bless you, brother.

[Brother duPlessis says, "Thank you, brother..."] [Blank spot on tape.]

Amen. We all did. Brother David, hurry right back and be with us again. That's very fine. We're sure happy.

shadow of death.

<sup>89</sup> And I say tonight, if a man wants to have a real change come on him, let him come face to face with God and meet Him one time, then he can say, "From then on, from that time on, I was a changed man. I know by experience."

<sup>90</sup> In a little while, the church will be gathering here around the altar. You'll be consecrating your lives anew. You'll be giving up things, and laying things on the altar. Brother, let me give you some advice. If you've never met God face to face, let me tell you something: You stay at that altar. Just stay there until you meet God. Then you can point your finger back to that New Year night, not and say, "I turned a new page, I made a new vow," but, "From that time on I met God, and life was changed, and things were different, and everything's become new to me again, from that time on." The time that you meet God.

<sup>91</sup> It ain't meet a New Year. We're going to face it in a few minutes, after while. In about two and a half hours, I suppose, maybe less than that, we will be meeting a new year face to face. We will meet it with vows; we will meet it with pledges; we will meet it with good intentions. We will meet it saying that we will try to turn a new page; we will try to do different.

<sup>92</sup> That's all good. I appreciate that, but brother, it'll never be eternal until you meet God first. When you meet God first, from then on, everything will be different.

<sup>93</sup> Let us pray when we bow our head. Lord Jesus, Son of God, I remember the time when I met You, Lord. I remember a miserable wretch, living a good moral life, not running around, drinking, or gambling, or smoking, or so forth. But I knowed, Lord, when death come stealing up in the hospital room some twenty years ago, there was something lacking in my life. There I met God, and from that time, from that time, Lord, I've tried to serve You. My life has been changed, and everything looks different. I'm so glad that I met You, Lord. And tonight, facing the new year, I'm glad to say that I can face it with the Spirit of the living God in my heart.

<sup>94</sup> Give us experiences, Lord. Give us of Thy goodness and mercy. Forgive us of our sins. And let us live through this coming year, O Lord God, with an experience that we have met You and our lives have been changed. Grant it, Lord. Forgive us of our shortcomings. Place within us Your Holy Ghost. Lead us and guide us.

but we need to come face to face with God and have eternal life, be born of His Spirit.

<sup>82</sup> Was an old man one time, and he couldn't make up his mind. The devil kept beating him out of it. One day out in the field he knelt down to pray. While he was praying, he drove down a stob. He said, "Let this be a memorial. Satan, if you ever come to me again, I'll point you to this stob, and I will tell you that right here I met God, and it was settled from here on."

<sup>83</sup> That's what we need, maybe not a stob in a field, but somewhere, some secret closet, some place. Oh, tonight there will be hundreds of vows taken, thousands of them taken. And next year we'll have to take them all over again. We'll say, "We'll quite lying; we'll quit doing this, and we'll lay aside our temper; we will do more for God; we'll do this, or that, or the other," only to find it's in vain.

<sup>84</sup> But what man needs to do tonight, is come face to face with God. And from then on, he's a changed creature. Hallelujah! Oh, I wish I could tell it in the way that I believe it. But when a man meets God, he's changed from that minute. The rest of his days he will never be the same, because he's got eternal life. He's a new creature; old things have passed away, and all things have become new to him. He looks new.

<sup>85</sup> The sick man can walk in the face of God, when the doctors has said he is going to die; but he can walk in the face of God and plead his case, and he will come away a different person, and from that time on. . .

<sup>86</sup> Oh, I remember Congressman Upshaw, sitting in a wheelchair for sixty-six years. That night yonder in California when the Holy Spirit come down and begin to speak, he met God, and from then on he could walk without his crutches.

<sup>87</sup> I've seen the time where cancer-eaten people, laid with nothing but a shadow, and the doctors had passed by, and said, "They're gone." Their loved ones gather in to say the last words that they could to them, of encouragement, but they met God. And from that time on, they were changed. They lived different.

<sup>88</sup> I can see the foul woman yonder on the street. I can see the drunkard yonder in the alley. I can see the hypocrite yonder in the church. All those different kinds of people, each New Year, turning a new sheet and trying to be something different, try to make restitutions and do so forth. Let them meet God one time, and from then on. . .

Jesus preached to those from then on that sat in the regions of the <sup>13</sup> Brother David said some things there that I just wished I'd had my pen, I could've jotted them down. But I will always remember "grandsons," the grandchildren.

<sup>14</sup> Well, we sure appreciate the visit of our brother. And he is connected with the World Conference of Pentecostal believers, and is a great man in the line of his work throughout the whole world. And we're fortunate tonight to have brother David come speak to us on this New Year's night. And you can see what great men think about our Lord, think about His great service.

<sup>15</sup> Now, I believe that tomorrow, being New Years. . . It's just a few hours now. And I have to leave early in the morning. So I thought I'd just speak a little bit, if it's all right with Brother Neville, and Brother Beeler, and the other ministers here. Won't take much of the time. And I think if we'd say "Amen" and go home, it'd be a wonderful message. And we could be thankful to the Lord for what that we have heard tonight.

<sup>16</sup> And now. . . But this being New Year's night, we just entertain each other by the kingdom of God, preaching until it comes the new year. And I've got to get up in the morning real early, way before day.

<sup>17</sup> And I'm not as young as David. Maybe I don't feel as young as he does. He's a. . . Of course, David's a little bit older than I am, I think; he's seven or eight years older, maybe ten. But he's certainly a fireball for God, traveling fifty thousand miles this year for the kingdom of God.

<sup>18</sup> On his road now over to preach at Brother Rogers, and tomorrow to be somewhere else, and somewhere else, and somewhere else. And back here again Monday. And I've got to meet with him to make arrangements for a worldwide tour coming now. And we're to be in Africa, I understood this afternoon, in March, this coming March. I'm to meet Clayton Sonnmore, from the Full Gospel Christian Businessmen, this week... or, this coming week, first part of it, and make arrangements for Jamaica, Haiti.

<sup>19</sup> I go next week into Kentucky... or, down into Georgia, have them meetings there. Come right back, and come down through Kentucky, a night here, a night there, catching these churches. And come right straight back home from there, and go to Atlantic City for. . . Begin at the twenty-seventh through the thirtieth, and lay there the morning of the first. And begin in Kingston, Jamaica, at the race track that night for ten days meeting there. And from there, on in then to the Haiti, and wherever. We don't know where to go from there, just as the Lord will lead us.

<sup>20</sup> Now, all these are in making. I haven't said, "Yes." David's here, "Clate's" coming. Gordon, Brother Gordon Lindsay's coming for South America. And the rest of the Christian Businessmen for the Latin speaking America. And Brother David's for Switzerland, Germany, on down.

<sup>21</sup> But we don't know yet. You keep praying. I don't want to go nowhere until God says, "Go," in the best of my knowledge. Therefore, if I feel lead to go, then when I get off the plane, no matter what the opposition is, I can say, "I come in the name of the Lord Jesus."

<sup>22</sup> I'm thankful for David, the friendship that we've had together, because the man is a very important man. But he certainly believes this ministry of the Lord. He certainly does. And our names has been associated together throughout the entire world now, Brother David and I. And I'm so glad to have association with a man like that.

<sup>23</sup> But friends, I appreciate that. But the greatest thing that I can think of being associated with, is Jesus Christ, the Son of God, that great One.

<sup>24</sup> Now, Brother Neville and some of them will be speaking in a few moments. But I want to read just a little something out of the Scripture now.

<sup>25</sup> And it's good, I think, on New Year's night to see different preachers, and the way they approach a text, and what they say, and so forth, and each man having his own way of preaching.

<sup>26</sup> You know, God didn't make us all alike. He made us different. He made us different in our stature; He made the world different; big mountains, the little mountains, prairies, deserts, big white flowers, blue flowers, and all different kinds. He just makes us different, that's all. He makes red heads, black heads, brown heads, white heads; fat, slim, tall, oh, whatever more, see. He just makes us different. God is a God of variety. And I kind of like that, don't you? Be just the same thing all the time-my, my. I like this.

<sup>27</sup> So let us turn now in our Scriptures over in the book of Saint Matthew, Saint Matthew's Gospel, beginning with the... and the fourth verse. I want to read us a text, the Lord helping us. Saint Matthew, the fourth chapter. I believe before we read, let's pray.

<sup>28</sup> Gracious heavenly Father, it is again with grateful hearts that we approach this new year. And we approach Thee, and bring to Thee all of our cares of the past, and ask that You'll put them in the sea of from that time, when he met Jesus, he was a different man. He had his sight. When a person meets God, something happens definitely.

MARK5:4,5,9 LUKE8:29,30

<sup>76</sup> There was a young man one time, no doubt a good citizen of the country. But spells come on him. And he was so bad, till the prison house couldn't hold him. And they bound him with chains, and he had a legion of devils in him, that he could break the chains and free himself. And the devils drove him to a graveyard where he stayed in there, and took the slabs, and get so mean he'd cut his own self. Oh, he was a terrible fellow. When those spells would leave him, no doubt he'd think, "What am I doing here?" And about that time, the devils would come to him again and cut him and tear him.

MARK5:15 LUKE8:35

<sup>77</sup> But one day, he met Jesus. And from that time on, the maniac of Gadara had his right mind, clothed, sitting at His feet. He could go back home as a gentleman. He could return to civilization. He could go back to his loved ones. He could say, "From that time, I've been changed." Yes.

<sup>78</sup> One day yonder on Calvary, when God and death met face to face, when life and death come together... But that's when life-Christ-pulled the stinger out of death. And since that time, death hasn't had no stinger in it.

1COR15:55

<sup>79</sup> I'm so glad of that. Death and God met together. Death hasn't been the same. It ain't got no stinger to it now. The Christian believer can walk right into it's face and say, "Oh, death, where is your stinger? Grave, where is your victory?" Why? They both met God. They haven't been the same since then.

No man can be the same. Nothing can be the same when it once meets God. You'll never be the same.

<sup>80</sup> I can remember laying here on the hospital bed. The doctors give me three minutes to live, my heart beating seventeen times to the minute. I met God. Since then I haven't been the same. Something happened to me. No one could tell me any different. Bill Branham died; I met God, and something come into me. I've never been the same since that minute I met Him. He changed me. He made me something different. It wasn't taking a New Years' vow, but I met God.

<sup>81</sup> Men and women, when you meet God, you're changed. We make our New Year's vows tonight, go back tomorrow morning to break them, next day to break them. But what we need to do is not a New Year vow, she believed it, and it changed the whole course of life for the woman, and makes her immortal. Her name was Mary, the mother of our Lord Jesus. The little lady was just an ordinary little girl. But she met God, and from that time on, something happened. Certainly.

<sup>70</sup> There was a man by the name of Peter, an old rugged fisherman, probably just as rough as they could come. And he was probably a great big push of a bully, because... Here sometime ago, I seen the play called "The Big Fisherman." And I thought it was a very good description of Peter, because he was such a big old rugged fellow. He didn't care for nothing. He didn't believe hardly anything. But one day, he met God. And from that time he was changed. From that time he become an apostle of the Lord Jesus Christ.

ACTS7:58 ACTS9:2 ACTS22:20

<sup>71</sup> As Brother David duPlessis was telling us awhile ago about Saul of Tarsus, a murderer, who held the coat of the murderers and witnessed, and give witness to the death of Stephen, the martyr. He had letters in his pockets to go down to the head councils of the churches, and arrest the people that were making too much noise, shouting and praising God. He was a great man in the sight of the Pharisees. He was a Pharisee of the Pharisee.

ACTS9:3 ACTS13:9

<sup>72</sup> But one day he was on his road to Damascus, and he met God. A light shined around him, and from that time on, he was no more Saul of Tarsus, but he was Paul, the humble one, the meek one, because he met God and it changed him.

MATT8:2 MARK1:40 LUKE5:12

<sup>73</sup> There was a leper laying at the gate. All the remedies of the medicine could not heal him. His putrefied sores had gotten so great, till his hands was beyond raising up anymore. And his feet, he could hardly drag them. His case was hopeless. But he met God one day coming out the gate, and he fell down, and worshipped, and said, "If Thou will, Thou can make me clean."

MATT8:3 MARK1:41 LUKE5:13

<sup>74</sup> And He said, "I will, be thou clean." And from that time, he didn't have no more leprosy, because he met God.

<sup>75</sup> There was a blind man sitting by the side of the road. And he could not see the daylight from dark. There was nothing could help him. One day someone come walking out of the city of Jericho. And when he met God... And from that time, he could see. His sight come to him. The sight of light had broke into his eyes and he could see again, because forgetfulness, and remember our sins against us no more. And may not only we check up with our spiritual being, but may we check our fellowship with Thee, and forgive us of all of our sins. And we ask that Your Spirit will deal with us tonight. And if there be any unclean thing about us, Lord, take it as far as the east is from the west, cast it into the sea of forgetfulness, to remember it against us no more, that we might enter into this new year clean, washed by the blood of the Lamb, and be ready. May this 1960 be the greatest year that we've ever served You. Give us exceedingly abundantly.

<sup>29</sup> All these meetings that are in progress, Lord, that we're thinking of, with Brother duPlessis, and around the world, into the Asia, and over into Europe, and all around. Lord, let it be Your will and Your power that'll lead to these things. And if we should at any time be stepping off of Your divine ordained path, may the Holy Spirit put a block in the way and stop us, Lord, and turn us back to the right place. Grant it.

<sup>30</sup> Bless this little church, Lord, about... way close to thirty years, I guess, it's stood here now, as a memorial of the grace of God to a humble people. We pray, Father, that You'll bless Brother Neville, the pastor. Bless all the church. Bless the trustees, the deacons, the song leader, the pianist, and all the laity, everyone, the Sunday school teachers, whatever more. Lord, may we be able to grow this year in the grace of God. And may our membership grow into greater numbers, and more grace of Yours than has been in the years gone by. Grant it, Father.

<sup>31</sup> Now, help us as we approach this text that we're fixing to read, Thy Word. And only You, Lord, can interpret. And we pray that You'll grant it to us for the kingdom of God's sake, in Jesus Christ's name. Amen.

<sup>32</sup> Announcing just now what I have chosen for a text for the next few moments, it's found in the Scripture here, and I will read it. I want to call it this: "From That Time."

<sup>33</sup> I didn't think... I said the other night, I didn't suppose I'd get to come down, because that my throat was getting raw. And my wife said to me yesterday, or day before, she said, "Then I suppose you'll not be going down to the church."

And I said, "Honey, I don't think so. My throat's so sore and raw."

<sup>34</sup> And then, no more than that night when I sat down and picked up the Scripture, I run onto this. Brother Sothmann came by; he said, "Will you be going to church tomorrow night?"

I said, "Yeah, I'll be there."

And Meda looked around at me, and she said, "I don't understand you."

I said, "I don't expect you to." See? I said, "or no one else."

<sup>35</sup> No one that's led by the Spirit of God can ever be understood. Our Lord, they could not understand Him. He looked like He talked one way one minute, and another way another minute, and somewhere else He's talking about something else. Sometime it was Jesus speaking; the other times it was God speaking, you see.

JOHN16:29

<sup>36</sup> Even the disciples said there at last, said, "Lo, now speakest Thou plainly; now we understand."

JOHN16:31

Then Jesus said, "Do you now believe?" (See) after that.

<sup>37</sup> You just can't do it, because you're led of the Spirit. And you start doing something, you find out that... You see, God wants to use you somewhere; you got to stop here and go here. Just led of the Spirit. They're odd, peculiar people, that has a life that you want to consecrate to God.

JAS4:15

<sup>38</sup> And then I always say this, "I will do this, if the Lord is willing." See, if I make a promise to anybody, I will do it if the Lord is willing, see. And therefore, then if it isn't the will of the Lord, and I will be... I'll speak on this message, if the Lord is willing. He could give me a call right in this message to take off for California. I'd cast aside everything, and take off for California as hard as I could go.

<sup>39</sup> And I want to live like that. I don't want nothing tying me down. I don't want no great big something or another where it's worth millions of dollars, and you have to get so much money every day, to tie me down. I want to be where when God says, "I want you to go down here to these people; there's only five of them, but go down there and stay there till I tell you to leave." I want to go there. I haven't got no obligations, just... And if He wants me go overseas...

<sup>40</sup> Now, here it is, just mentioned going to Germany... or, to Africa, and some millionaire woman, just the time that the Spirit put it upon me go to Africa, she said, "I'll sponsor the trip and pay every bit of it." See, that's all. Why should I worry about money and things, when my father owns all of it. He could just speak to this rich man, or that rich man, or this people, or that people, and no need of me have to worry about it. See, God just takes care of it all. Brother Roy, that's the way to live. Just let Him take care of it. It's so good.

believed God and believed His promise, because he had met God.

ROM4:20,21

<sup>63</sup> Twenty-five years later, they were discussing... trying to disgust him, telling him that he'd believed something was wrong. But the Bible said he got stronger all the time, giving praise to God, because he knowed that God had to keep the promise.

That's when a man meets God. It changes his make-up. It gives him a super sense.

<sup>64</sup> As I was speaking the other night, the natural man only has the five senses. But the believer, when he meets God, he gets something different; it's a super sense that lifts him up above the shadows. It makes him believe things that's impossible to come to pass. He still believes they will come to pass, because God said so. When a man meets God, something takes place.

<sup>65</sup> There was a time when a man had been trained in all the wisdom, all the theology of the Word of God. He knowed it by the letter. He'd been school. He had all the degrees. He was so smart until he could teach the Egyptian scholars and their teachers. He knowed it all by letter, but a coward with it, that run, and went out to the back side of a desert and was herding sheep for a stranger. But there come a time, that when God met him there in the burning bush, and from that time on Moses was changed, because he met God in a burning bush. And face to face with God, he couldn't be the same anymore.

<sup>66</sup> When a man or a woman, I don't care how many vows you make, or how many new pages you turn, until you meet God you can't be changed. But when you once meet God, then you're changed forever.

<sup>67</sup> It didn't only change Moses, it changed Israel. It changed Egypt. It changed the world at that time, because one man met God, and took Him at His Word.

<sup>68</sup> What we need today is somebody to meet God face to face and talk to Him. The situation... When men meet God, things are changed. Certainly. That's the only way that we could have things. And from that time on, Moses the coward, Moses the one that was running, had been changed. And from that time, he become the servant of the Lord. It always works that way. When a man meets God, things are changed.

<sup>69</sup> There was a little girl one time not over eighteen years old, or maybe not that old, that was on her road to a well one morning to get a bucket of water down in Nazareth. She was a nice little girl. She believed. She had faith. But that morning she met God, and God told her something, and they got married. And they put their vows together, and they pledged one to another their loyalty. And they said that “We will love, honor, and cherish each other as long as we both live.” But there come a time that something happened.

<sup>58</sup> All these things are... There’s a time when something happens. And maybe all their vows, and all the Leagues of Nations, and so forth, maybe had good intentions, but they all come to an end. All become crumbling beneath the feet of men. With all the good intentions we could have, but all must come to an end.

<sup>59</sup> But there is a time that where men can come to something that’s eternal. That’s the time man meets God. That’s when something happens that’s eternal.

<sup>60</sup> We do our mistakes. And we make our vows on New Years night, to only break them the next day. We turn new pages, and we assign vows, and we go to priests (We don’t, but Catholics do.), and make confessions, and sign pledges. And we come to the altar and turn new pages, but all in vain, for the next time somebody crosses our path or something, that old temper will fly right back again. Every time that we get into trouble or something, it’ll happen again.

JOHN6:37,40

<sup>61</sup> But there is a place, where a man can come to a time that it’ll change him forever, for eternal. “He that will come to Me, I will in no wise cast out,” said Jesus. A man can come to God, and his whole eternal destination is changed. And a man can meet God, and he can never be the same anymore. You can’t meet God and ever remain the same person you was. If you turn away from Him, you’ll be a worse person that you ever were. If you receive Him, you got eternal life, and He will raise you up at the last day by His promise.

ROM4:17

<sup>62</sup> There was a time when there was a man called Abraham, who come down out of the Chaldeans. And He dwelt in the city of Ur. And he was just a man, a good man. Perhaps maybe he might have... His father perhaps worshipped idols, because they come from Babylon. And he was just an ordinary man. And he was getting old; he was seventy-five and his wife was sixty-five. And Abraham, one day when he was perhaps out in the field hunting, or whatever he was doing, picking berries, or whatever his job might’ve been, he met God and from that time he was changed. He could call things that was not as though they were, because he had met God. He knowed the minute and the hour that he met God. It changed him. And God called him to be the father of many nations, and

<sup>41</sup> Now, let us turn in our Scriptures to the fourth chapter, and let’s begin to read about the twelfth verse of the fourth chapter of the Gospel according to Saint Matthew.

Now when Jesus had heard that John was cast into prison, he departed into Galilee;

And leaving Nazareth, he came and dwelt in Capernaum, which is upon the seacoast, in the borders of Zabulon and Nephthalim:

That it might be fulfilled which was spoken by Esaias the prophet, saying,

The land of Zabulon, and the land of Nephthalim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jordan, Galilee of the Gentiles;

The people that sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the regions of the shadow of death light is sprung up.

From that time Jesus begin to preach, and to say, Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

I want to speak on the subject: “And From That Time.”

<sup>42</sup> You know, as human beings, we all think of things, from a certain time such-and-such a thing taken place, and from that time... And now, many times you meet an old man, or an old woman, and they like to refer back to a time that something taken place, that they can distinctively mark it out and say, “It was at that time.”

<sup>43</sup> Now, I suppose there’s... practically all of us here tonight, could call to remembrance of certain things that taken place at certain times. From that time something changed. Such-and-such a thing, it happened at that time, and from that time on it was different. And it’s a good thing that we can. And some of those memories of things that we think of is worthy things that changed. And there’s some things that is not so worthy of thinking of.

<sup>44</sup> For instance: if the woman of ill-fame, that she said, “There was a time that I was a good, righteous, moral girl. And on a certain night, or a certain place, a certain thing happened.” And since that time, she’s been on the wrong road. Her life has been marred with sin and blackness, and darkness; and only judgment waits her. But she can remember from that certain time it happened when she took the wrong road.

The drunk man tonight on the streets that’s trying to drink his sorrows away, you might pick him up...

<sup>45</sup> Like, I was down on the bowery here some time ago, in New York, the great center of the drunken people. I was walking with a certain minister. And there laid a man, oh, just plenty of men, harmless, helpless, laying there with the front of their cloths all wet, and the beards all over their faces, and just in a terrible condition. And they were perfectly harmless.

And this minister said, "Pick that one up, and just ask him."

<sup>46</sup> And I went over to this man, which was laying with one foot across a bumper of a car, and his head laying down on the street. And where that he had been unable to go at times to the restroom... And oh, he was just in a terrible condition. And I took a hold of him. And I said, "Can you speak?" And he wouldn't make me no answer.

<sup>47</sup> So the minister got down. He knowed more about how to deal with him. And he asked him, "Who are you." And finally he got him roused up enough, till he'd say, "If you'll buy me a drink..." And come to find out, he could point his finger to the bank that he used to be president of.

Well, he said, "We are preachers. Could you tell me what took place?"

"If you'll promise me a drink."

Well, we couldn't do that. I said, "I couldn't add sorrow to your sorrows. I want to help you."

<sup>48</sup> Oh, his story: He come home one night, and there was, what he called a "Dear John" letter on the table. Then his wife had left him. He loved her, and she had taken his children. And he was divorced. And she'd run away with another man. And he said, "I didn't know what to do, to shoot my brains out, or what to do, so I went down to the saloon." And from that time, there he was. That's all over the world.

<sup>49</sup> The liar: you might take one... As I said to a man one day, that I thought was telling jokes, and come to find out that he told so many lies till he really believed them himself.

<sup>50</sup> And I said, "What makes you do that?" And I sat down to talk with him. I said, "I want to ask you. Those stories are too wild for people to believe."

<sup>51</sup> He said, "The first one I can ever remember telling," he said, "I was a little boy that was raised in a good home." And he said, "I went out and smoked corn silk cigarettes, just to be smart. And I'd eat some coffee to take it off of my breath." And he said, "I done it back behind the old chimney behind the house." And he said, "I will never forget. When mother caught me up and said to me, 'Sonny, let me smell your breath.' And I blowed my breath into her face, and she said, 'You've eat coffee to take something off of your breath. What have you been doing? Have you been smoking cigarettes?'" And he said, "Something told me to tell her the truth." He said, "But I said, 'No, Mama. I cross my heart. I haven't been smoking cigarettes.'" He said, "And from that time..." That started it.

We can all find something that began at a certain time. And from then on, things was changed.

<sup>52</sup> And there's other worthy things that we could think of. Men with good intentions has tried to start things anew, to do things at certain times. For instance, when electricity was first found by Benjamin Franklin, and he was able to conquer it, they begin to say, "From this time on there'll never be no more wars, because this electricity could be put into fences with such a high voltage till no man could cross it." They meant well.

<sup>53</sup> And right after the First World War, when Kaiser Wilhelm signed the treaty of peace, we were told here in America... I was a boy of about nine years old. But I can remember of the people all saying, "We'll never have another war from this time on. It's settled forever." But we had another war.

<sup>54</sup> And when the great U.N... Or, I would say before that, they formed what was called the League of Nations. And they said, "Now, we'll have no more wars, because we've got a League of Nations that will patrol the world. And if there is an uprise somewhere, these men out of every nation will go there and police the world." But it was a failure. They went right on having wars. And the U.N. will become the same thing.

<sup>55</sup> We are told now by a prediction that tomorrow night... or, Sunday night... The same man that predicted Pearl Harbor to the exact moment that the airplanes would bomb it, said that Sunday night at twelve o'clock, that seventy-five percent of the American people would go into ashes, that Russia will bomb the United States this coming Sunday night at twelve o'clock-the same man that predicted Pearl Harbor. They're not putting it out, because people will go frantic. I don't believe it.

<sup>56</sup> No, because you can't suffer atomic war. If one of theirs pass through the sound barrier this way, we will throw them that way, and the world will go to pieces. Something's got to happen yet before Jesus comes. That's right.

<sup>57</sup> For instance: the young married couple, there was a certain time that
